Thursday, March 10, 1949

LEAVES FOR ROME—James Cardinal McGuigan, archbishop of Toronto and Canada's only cardinal, has left for New York from where he will sail to Rome on his "ad lemina" visit to the Vatican. The visit is made every five years to report conditions in his diocese. This year Cardinal McGuigan, shown here boarding a train and saying farewell to Most Reverend Benjamin I. Webster, auxiliary archbishop, will be present for the special services in conjunction with the golden jubilee of Pope Pius' entering the priesthood. (C. P. Photo)

ON SHOW in recent exhibitions in London, England, were these three, wheeled ways of mechanical progress. Left: The Velocette

149 lightweight motor-cycle, called the "two-wheeled

Wheels of Progress for Home,

Land, Road are Demonstrated

COASTAL SETTLEMENT-With Labrador's total population only 5,000, there are no large centres in this mainland part of Newfoundland. Scattered around the coast are small trading posts and Eskimo settlements. Shown here is Cartwright, typical of these small settlements. Located on Sandwich Bay, Cartwright sees a temporary increase in population every summer as fishermen move north from Newfoundland for the fishing season.

of reason for the toothsome glee registered by the lady in the picture. She is Alena Vrzanova, 13-year old Czech successor to Canada's Barbara Ann Scott, who won the women's world figure skating championship in Paris. She is being congratulated by Dick Button of Englewood, N.J., who won the men's title. Button hasn't been defeated in his two years on ice. He is also Olym-

THEY'RE SITTING ON TOP OF THE WORLD—There is plenty

ful not to injure them as she rounds them up. (C. P. Photo)

MUST STAND TRIAL-Sam Carr, named in the royal commission on espionage as one of the leaders spy ring, was committed for trial in Ottawa last charge of uttering a false passport. His hearing is a

May. Shown here in the custody of an Ottawa police is being led from city court after the preliminary he

BAY COMPANY POST-Dotting the coastal areas of Labrador which becomes par ada when Newfoundland enters confederation are trading posts and Eskimo settlem is the Hudson's Bay Company post at Rigolet on Hamilton Inlet. Also located on Inlet is Goose Bay, the $25,000,000 airport built by Canada during the war.

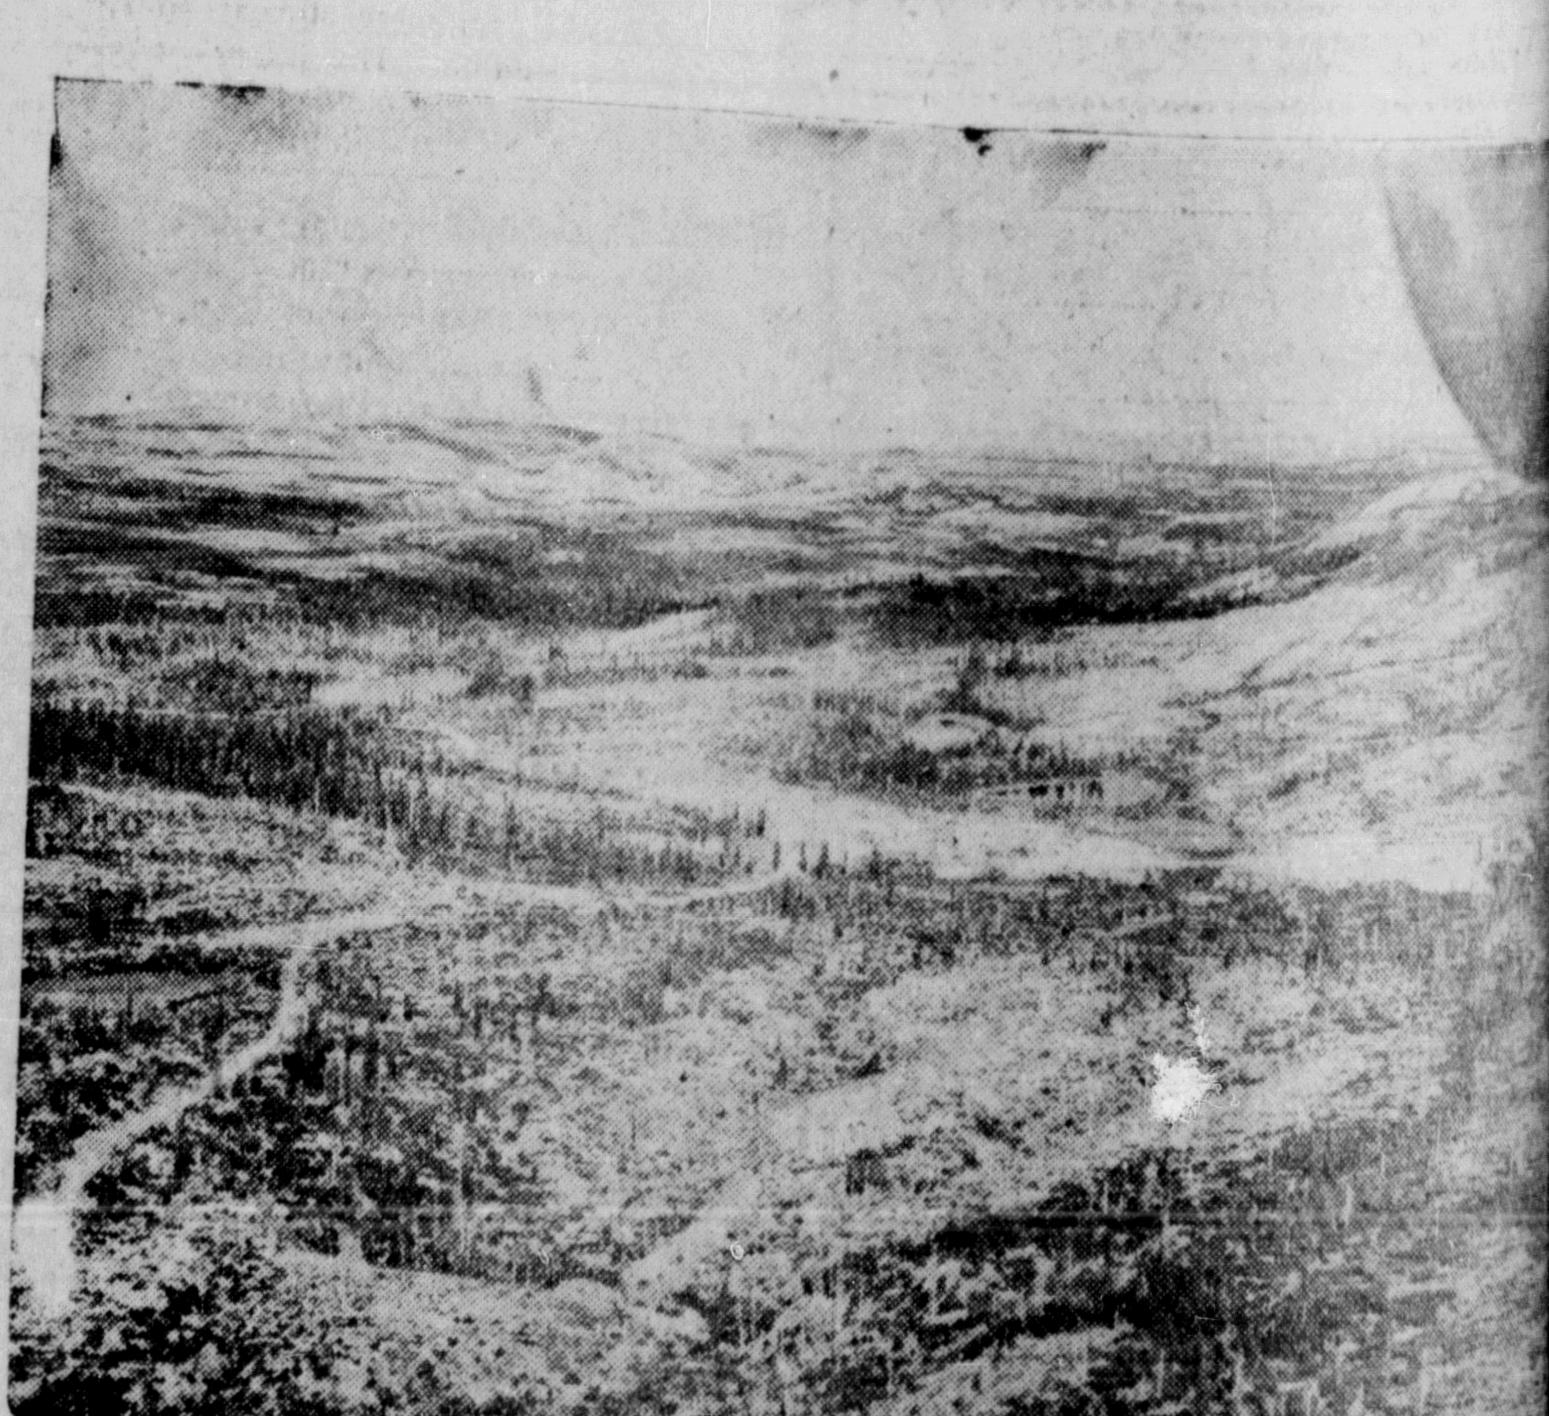

HOCKEY OFFICIALS—In the officials' box at Stockholm's hockey stadium during the world championship competition in which Czechoslovakia won the amateur title and C Sudbury Wolves placed second were officials of the World International Ice Hockey i tion and two Canadians who accompanied the Canadian entry officiating during the tition. Shown in this photo by William Boss, CP staff writer, are, left to right; Dr. A.F. enbrodspot of Holland; F. W. (Dinty) Moore of Port Colborne, who represented Canada executive and who refereed many of the matches; Dr. Fritz Kraatz, Swiss president to world federation; Max Silverman of Sudbury, Ont., who managed the Wolves; an unit fied French official; and J. F. (Bunny) Ahearne of England,

FOR SUNNIER CLIMES—Winter snows blustered outside as these sailors from the destroyer Haida drew their summer "whites" from Halifax naval stores prior to leaving on a Caribbean training cruise. The Haida, the destroyer Noot ka and the carrier Magnificent will rendezvous with three ships from the west coast at Colon, Panama, on March 16 for exercises with U.S. fleet units. This R. C. N. photo shows, left to right: CPO. Hector Cooper of Kelsey, Alta., AB. Edward Merchant of Montreal and Po. John Prostanski of Windsor, Ont., drawing clothes for the warmer climates. (C. P. Photo)

SHADES OF ROBBIE BURNS!—Chief Constable Walter Mulligan of Vancouver, a stalwart Irish cop, is faced with a tough decision. On various occasions citizens in the residential areas of Vancouver have appealed to police to stop the skirl of the pipes in the hands of John Sutherland, well-known west coast piper. After brief periods of silence the pipes have again been heard. Now after the longest silence to date an appeal has gone from Sutherland, shown here, to the chief of police to have the ban lifted.

POTENTIAL VALUE—Labrador which until now has been largely unexplored will see a new dawning when work is a developed. dawning when vast deposits of iron ore are known to exist in the interior are developed ploration work has been largely unexplored. ploration work has been extensive and work has started on a railway from the St. Lawrence to the interior to move and started on a railway from the St. Lawrence to the interior to move out upwards of 10,000,000 tons yearly. This aerial photo shows the country where this are in a sure Lake at country where this ore is found. This particular photo was taken in the bordering on Quebec.

Market and the second of the second of the second of STRANGE BIDDIE—Shorty, a rat terrier in Leamington, Ont., is busy these days keeping her adopted brood of chicks from straying. Shorty became attached to the chicks when their owner brought them into the kitchen to keep them warm. Now looking after them is almost a full time occupation. She is care-