COLORFUL DRAMA OF WEST IS HERE

Beautiful photography in color and exciting romantic action are combined in the picture of Rex Beach's "Michigan Kid," tale of the frontier west, which is coming to the Capitol Theatre Sunday night and Monday. Companion film on a double bill is "Temptation," a tense portrayal of feminine psychology, romantic duplicity and taut melodrama.

"Michigan Kid," concerns a hard-riding peace officer's battle with powerful underworld forces in massive, scenic backgrounds of the old west. Jon Hall is the hero with Victor McLaglen as the villain with whom Andy Devine is associated in a renegade band. Rita Johnson is the victim of the outlaws.

Merle Oberon is a tempting, scheming adventuress in "Temptation," other leading parts in which are taken by George Brent, Charles Korvin and Paul Lukas.

Derelict Fish Boat Adrift in Hecate Straits After Storms —Repair Work at Dry Dock

A derelict fish boat, approximately 35 to 40 feet long, was reported sighted yesterday morning in Hecate Straits about 28 miles from Dead Tree Point, according to advice received at the office of the district marine agent, Department of Transport, here. The vessel was submerged except for the top of the cabin. It is believed it may have been a vessel which broke away from moorings at some point during the storms which swept this part of the coast this week.

JOB'S DAUGHTERS ELECT OFFICERS

Prince Rupert Bethel, Job's Daughters, elected a slate of officers for 1949 at a meeting held last night at the Masonic Temple, naming Miss Lorna Donaldson Honored Queen. She succeeds Miss Solveig Mork, who held the position for the last year.

Other officers elected were: Senior Princess, Joanne Langridge.

Junior Princess, Mary McAfee. Guide, Frances Webber. Marshall, Mellaine Brechin. Other officers will be appointed by the incoming Queen following her installation on December 3.

Members of the Guardian Council elected last night were: Guardian, Mrs. Alex Mitchell. Associate Guardian, George Daves.

Guardian Treasurer, Mrs. Eric Tycho.

Guardian Secretary, Miss Dorothy McLeod.

Director of Music, Mrs. R. S. Donaldson.

Miss Edith Jordan was initiated as a new member.

An effort is being made by the group to organize a drill team to compete against other drill teams from Canada and the United States at a meeting of the Supreme Assembly of Jobs Daughters in Spokane in August, 1949.

Miss Bernice Eastwood acted as Honored Queen at last night's meeting in the absence of Miss Solveig Mork.

A gale which old-timers in the Skidegate Inlet area have marked up as the second strongest in their memory caused the destruction of one vessel and damage to six others Tuesday night. Estimated wind velocity was as high as 90 miles an hour from the southeast, ripping at the wharves at Queen Charlotte City with unreduced force from Hecate Strait. The 32-foot trawler Ila, owned by William H. Fairbairn, of Queen Charlotte City was blown across the inlet and damaged so severely that she is reported to be a total loss. The other boats received varying degrees of damage as a result of the wind.

Capt. John Wick's 45-foot halibut boat Johanna is receiving hull repairs and general overhaul at the dry dock after being brought here by Armour Salvage Co. from Observer Inlet where she was beached after striking a deadhead on October 16. Her skipper and three passengers spent 19 hours on the beach in stormy weather before being rescued.

Repair work on the 93-foot Ketchikan freighter Discoverer which was wrecked on Lewis Island off the Skeena mouth and salvaged by Armour Salvage Co. has been authorized. The work is to be done at the dry dock. The hull of the Discoverer was badly damaged by the beating the vessel took when she grounded and was rolled ashore on a rocky beach during a 55-mile an hour gale more than a month ago. Owned by Lawrence Erickson of Ketchikan, the Discoverer was enroute to Seattle for a cargo when she was wrecked. She was insured to the extent of $30,000.

Union steamer Coquitlam, Capt. Alf Aspinall, docked here at 1 o'clock Friday afternoon from Vancouver with passengers and 60 tons of freight for Prince Rupert. She sailed at 10 o'clock last night for Cumshewa Inlet and Skidegate Inlet on her weekly Island schedule. Despite strong winds, the Coquitlam had smooth crossings of both
