Alter Guild—Mrs. Dover, Mrs. Giggie.

Mrs. West gave her report on the year's activities and the financial report, as presented by the secretary, showed that the past year had been very successful. The church has now been 21 months without a minister and it is hoped that the vacancy will very soon be filled.

Word had been received that Mrs. T. J. Marsh, widow of the late Canon Marsh, had fallen and broken a bone in her shoulder. She is living with her daughter Etanda. Mrs. Jim Faragher in Montreal. A token of remembrance will be sent to her by the W. A. members.

The next meeting will be the Valentine tea meeting when each member takes a small article to be sold for 25c. the proceeds going towards the Thanksgiving Fund. It will be held at the home of Mrs. West on February 9th.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. R. Thomson at the close of the meeting.

First Wedding Of 1950 At Terrace

TERRACE—The first of the 1950 weddings took place on Thursday evening last when Rev. Percy Mallett united in marriage at the United Church, Margaret Julia Mile and George Russell Hemer.

In a white satin gown with net yoke edged with beads, and panier style skirt, and fingertip veil held in place with a Queen Anne headress the bride carried a beautiful bouquet of crimson rosebuds and white carnations. She was given in marriage by her father, Andrew Mile.

Matron of Honor was the elder sister of the bride, Mrs. Lillian Houghland, who wore blue organdy, shot puff sleeves, flared, bustle effect skirt and a blue veil headress. Her flowers were yellow chrysanthemums.

A younger sister, Sarah Mile, was bridesmaid and she wore a gown of blue Swiss embroidered voile trimmed with frilled taffeta and small shoulder cape to match. Her headress was of blue net and her bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. Wilfred Haugland attended the groom and Frank Pongras was usher.

During the signing of the registers, Jim Proctor sang "Because". Flora Melvin played the nuptial music.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Oddfellows' Hall where, attired in blue crepe, Mrs. Andrew Mile, mother of the bride, received the guests.

A cold supper was served and the wedding cake was cut with due ceremony by the bride, with the groom's assistance.

A toast to the King was proposed by Norman McNabb to the bride by Robert Squires and to the bride's mother by Don Hull.

Later, a dance was held in the hall, where, dancing to the strains of the local orchestra continued till early hours of the morning.

200 Million Dollars Lost Yearly In Canada to Colds

According to recent surveys, colds cause more loss of working time than any other disease. These studies indicate that colds will cost Canadians over $20,000,000 this year in lost wages. It was also found that most of us have between three and four colds a year which cause us to lose a total of more than 50 million working days.

To reduce the misery caused by these colds, more and more Canadian men and women are turning to Vicks VapoRub. They know that VapoRub brings quick, comforting relief from the painful distress of colds.

They know that even as they rub Vicks VapoRub on throat, chest and back that VapoRub's soothing medicinal vapors are penetrating deep into cold-congested bronchial tubes to soothe irritation, relieve annoying congestion and ease coughing spasms. Best of all, VapoRub keeps working for hours to bring really comforting relief from the misery of a cold sore throat or bronchitis. Be sure to keep Vicks VapoRub handy—buy a jar today.

Ray Reflects . . . . . . and Reminisces

Building of a paper mill at Edmonton, to cost ten million dollars is to commence in July. Its capacity will be two hundred tons of newsprint daily. When the late Frank Oliver carted the little plant of what was to become the Bulletin across the plains about 80 years ago, one of his worries was where to find enough paper to keep him going. Fort Edmonton was a long way from anywhere that far back.

Frost, if it's keen enough, puts a crimp in your pay cheque for it means more coal, more oil, more clothes, more everything. "I know this month is going to cost me about $35 extra," remarked a local business man with a "but what's to be done about it?" expression on a vexed face.

A newspaper that doesn't make you mad once in a while isn't worth the price of subscription.

Sometimes you hear it said that had there been no war there would not have been a Skeena River highway or a Civic Centre and no certainty of a cellulose plant. Or suppose Prince Rupert itself had never been heard of?

Bill Bailey, old soldier entered hospital late last week. Old soldier is right. Grizzled, but still erect, he can tell you about India when Rudyard Kipling's "Barrack Room Ballads" pictured T. Atkins in a way he'd never been described before. But Bill is getting along and that's true of a lot of us.

There is more than one way to feel warm during Prince Rupert's longest and coldest spell of frosty weather. One is to increase underclothing and remain handy to a hot stove. Another is to go skiing on Mount Hays. The latter allows no time to think of anything except skiing.

Mrs. C. C. King and Mrs. Emil Haugland were passengers on Prince Rupert on Sunday morning's train.

Very Cold At Terrace

TERRACE—Although the official low temperature of the prevailing cold wave was 18 below on Saturday morning in Terrace, other spots in the district have been much colder. At Kitsum-Kalum the thermometer went down to 30 below. Until Saturday, a raging gale blew for five days in Terrace, but, past the Catholic church there was no wind although a greater drop in temperature. It was reported to be 25 degrees below near the H. King farm. This has led several citizens to believe that the wind, though biting, tempered the intense cold and thus the difference in temperatures in places a half-a-mile apart.

Although the schools were open, very few of the children turned out.

With a clear sky and brilliant sunshine, no hope of relief seems near.

SHIPS and— WATERFRONT

Union steamer Chelcote, Capt. Harry McLean, returned to port at 1:30 yesterday afternoon from southerly Queen Charlotte Island points and sailed at 9 p.m. for Butedale, Nanaimo, Westview and Vancouver.

With fair-sized list of passengers and considerable freight, Union steamer Coquitlam, Capt. William McCombe, arrived in port at 6:30 last evening from Vancouver and waypoints and sailed at midnight for Alice Arm, Stewart and other northern points whence she will return here tomorrow to sail south at 1:30.

Queer Ideas About North

TERRACE—The Terrace youth are chucking over the stories brought back from the south by Gerald Toop who recently returned from the Boys' Parliament in Victoria. Totally in ignorance of the location of Terrace and even Prince Rupert, some of the boys there were eager to know if Gerald travelled by dog sled and they were very keen to know all about the Eskimos. They were amazed to know that there are planes, trains and cars here. Even in these times it hardly seems possible for children in B. C. not to know how the other half live.
