you free," said the Scriptures. If the freedom of truth could be brought about and propagandized, then the other freedoms would naturally follow.

Capt. Poulton defined the word propaganda-the encouraging or spreading of a particular principle or doctrine. Hitler had said: "If you tell a lie long enough and forcibly enough, people will think it is the truth." Some people might think the louder the noise the better the thing. What all 6:00-Canada at Work good citizens could do was to stop | 6:15-English Favourite the spread of the wrong kind of propadganda in the community and in the world. They could propagandize Christian truths instead of what was not the truth. "Let's make sure that we do all we can to get the whole truth," the speaker appealed.

Capt. Poulton was introduced by W. F. Stone, who had charge was thanked by Gyro President

. J. Dominato. Guests were Robof Vancouver.
