Now-up On Housing Survey

Campaign which has now commenced through news-advertising for an expression of local interest in the Dominion-provincial housing assistance scheme should be actively followed up by other means, J. T. Harvey urged at the meeting of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce Monday night. An active committee should pursue the matter and, if necessary, report to the executive council of the Chamber during the summer months. It was reported that Denys Black, administrator of Central Housing and Mortgage Corporation from Vancouver, would be here in connection with the matter next month. W. F. Stone reported that the municipal committee of the Chamber had interviewed the city council in connection with the housing matter as a result of which the city had decided to proceed with the survey of the need of new housing, the survey to be spearheaded by the newspaper advertising. Mr. Stone reported that the municipal committee had also met with the traffic committee of the city council and some suggestions made which it was hoped would be effected.

$1525 Raised— Cancer Fund Still Grows

Although the campaign has officially closed, contributions are still coming in for the 1950 drive for funds of the Canadian Cancer Society and Rev. Fred Antrobus, local chairman, reports the grand total has now reached the final total of $1525.80. The original objective was $1000.

The actual house-to-house canvassing ceased a week ago but some further splendid contributions have been received with which Mr. Antrobus is much gratified. There are but three expected sources still to be heard from.

Scout's Expenses Raised Saturday

Conrad Street School was the scene of a successful sale and afternoon tea Saturday when the Women's Auxiliary of Scout Group No. 2, assisted by the group committee, raised the funds necessary to spend King Scout Magnus Eyoifson to the international jamboree to be held at Valley Forge, Pennsylvania, in June.

The hall was tastefully decorated with green and yellow, the troop colors. Tea tables were bedecked with spring flowers. Many friends called during the afternoon to patronize the affair.

A bountiful supply of home cooking was quickly sold as were the many useful household articles realized from coupons collected by the cubs. The country store was a big attraction and, in a short time, was completely sold out. Doughnuts, hot dogs and pop were popular with the children.

Mrs. H. Thom was general convener, assisted by all members of the Women's Auxiliary.

START SCHOOL FOR BABY SITTERS—School for baby-sitters, probably first of its kind in Canada, has started in St. Catharine's Ont. Anne Roland, left, and Sandra Stevens learn how to mix baby's formula. Girls asked for a course of six weekly lectures. Embryonic sitters, schooled to meet any emergency, are in pool which insists parents be home when they say they will. A public health nurse gives first aid instruction for emergencies that "sitters" meet.

Asked $50 And Received $100

George Ogston, president of the Associated Boards of Trade of Central British Columbia, asked the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce for a contribution of $50 to assist the Associated Boards organization in meeting its financial requirements. The Prince Rupert Chamber has agreed not only to meet the request for a minimum contribution of $50 but to double the figure and send $100.

Mr. Ogston, in his communication to the local Chamber, requested at least $50 from Prince Rupert and Prince George and $25 from Vanderhoof.

W. J. Scott, member of the local Chamber and vice-president of the Associated Boards, felt that the $50 would be inadequate and proposed the $100.

The executive of the local Chamber will also draw up a resolution for submission to the Associated Boards convention to be held late in August in Prince George with a view to drawing up a more adequate plan of financing of the Associated Boards organization.

G. A. Cowan of Los Angeles, who happened to be in the city last Wednesday during the Kinsmen's Club's Victoria Day celebration, took some interesting press photographs of the parade. One of them which turned out very well was that of the Boy Scout float with three Scouts standing at salute. The picture which has been received at the Daily News office will be available for the first of these boys who calls.

SUPPLIERS IN POLICE COURT

In city police court Monday morning four persons were prosecuted for violating liquor laws over the week-end. Magistrate W. D. Vance handed out two $50 fines to Mary Brown and John Seamore for supplying. Both also paid $3.50 costs. Queenie Temple was fined $25 and $3.50 costs for being in possession of an intoxicant. A $10 fine and $3.50 costs was given to Rufus White, charged with being intoxicated.
