ers who had been dian National Railways for the clearance of the snow slides on the railway. He has been working for the past two weeks at a tremendous pace and has been putting in 24-hour shifts.

A small band of workers meeting once a month at the homes of the members, the Terrace Dorcas Society is doing a great deal of charitable work which is deeply appreciated. Reading matter, in the form of a subscription to good magazines will be supplied to the Terrace Hospital and to the Burns Lake Hospital. Up to date, $200 worth of food parcels and one quarter of a ton of clothing have been sent to the Old Country and Europe. A call came last week from Headquarters for clothing for Finland and, for this, there will be a house-to-house canvass as soon as the weather permits and shipments will be sent through Vancouver. TERRACE HAS AMATEUR NIGHT

TERRACE—The local theatre was filled last Thursday evening for the first Amateur Show sponsored by the Kinsmen's Club. School-age children were the entertainers with only one adult, Bob Baxter, participating with an accordion solo. Alf Yoxall, master of ceremonies, contributed not a little to the evening's enjoyment with a recitation and humorous remarks.

Those taking part in the program were R. Baxter, Ivy Gillespie, Robert Melvin, Margaret Procter, Clarence Baker, Dianne Paquette, Ross Gillanders, Marilyn de Kergommeaux, Anita Elue, Gloria Irving, Mattias Pongracz, R. Paulson, Gerald Toop, B. Bissonnette, Jimmy Procter.

The judges were Dr. F. McGilvery, J. Stevenson and J. H. Smith and the prizes were awarded to those who received the greatest applause. First prize of $20 went to the guitar playing group with Jimmy Procter as soloist. Gerald Toop, B. Bissonnette. Second prize of $10 was won by Clarence Baker and third prize, $5, by Ivy Gillespie. Consolation prizes of $1 were given to Gloria Irving, Margaret Procter and Robert Melvin.

The proceeds are in aid of the Kinsmen Project Fund.

EXPLAINING TO NEWFOUNDLAND

ST. JOHNS, Nfld.—The intricacies of the customs of Canada, taxation, the postal service, family allowances and unemployment insurance are being explained to Newfoundland officials by Ottawa civil servants in preparation for the taking over of the island by the Dominion government next month.

Plans also include Easter gifts for the nurses at the hospitals. Mrs. C. Alger is the new president of the society and Mrs. McClelland secretary.

TEAMMATES — Mrs. Louis Lombard of Anburndale, Mass., only woman contestant in the International Dog Derby at Ottawa, looks almost as furry as her dog when she wears her parka. With Mrs. Lombard is Wolf, a Siberian husky and lead-dog of her seven-dog team. Also entered in the race is Dr. Roland Lombard, her husband. (CP Photo)

CANNOT STAY EAST ANYMORE

ALMONTE, Ont.—The O'Neill family cannot live back in the Ottawa Valley of Ontario after having known the Yukon. They are returning north.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry O'Neill and little daughter have fared well their kin and friends for the wild terrain of the Keno district. Their lead and silver claims are about forty miles from Mayo Landing. They will travel by air as far as Whitehorse. Later in the season Barry will be joined by his brother, Terry and father.

UNITED CHURCH VALENTINE TEA

The home of Mrs. A. J. Dominato, Taylor Street, was the setting of a delightful Valentine tea held Thursday afternoon under sponsorship of the Women's Auxiliary of First United Church.

Valentine Day colors were employed strikingly in the table centre-piece which consisted of red and white tulips flanked with silver candlesticks holding white tapers twined with red ribbon. A bright log fire in the hearth added to the cheerful atmosphere.

Mrs. Andrew Thompson, Women's Auxiliary president, received the guests, assisted by Mrs. Dominato. At the urns were Miss Helen Hurd, Mrs. R. C. Large, Mrs. E. A. Wilson and Mrs. A. S. Nickerson.

Serviteurs were Mrs. J. Macdonald, Mrs. D. Fraser, Mrs. Hugh Macdonald, Mrs. R. Irvine, Mrs. M. F. Stuart and Mrs. George E. Peters.

In charge of the home cooking table were Mrs. G. Cleopas and Mrs. Robert Barclay. Mrs. D. Santurbane was cashier.

Mrs. W. Faught was convener for the tea and her assistants were Mrs. N. Marneau, and Miss Margaret McLeod.

SHIPS and WATERFRONT

Capt. "Buster" Brown, who lost his life when the fish packer "Passing Cloud," foundered in Queen Charlotte Sound last week was born in Newfoundland. He had spent quite a few years in Arctic waters and on the MacKenzie River, and early in life, served in the British Navy.

INDUSTRIAL INCREASE
Britain's engineering, ship-building and electrical goods industries output in 1948 was 20 to 25 percent higher than in 1947.
