Mr. Archibald's Stand

JIS CONSTITUENTS in Skeena will be quite able to decide for themselves how they feel about the stand which their member at Ottawa is reported to have taken in regard to the North Atlantic Pact. The Vancouver Sun reports that he is leading a C.C.F. rump of revolt against the alliance. Possibly even Mr. Archibald's own party will not be so very happy about it.

As far as Socialists are concerned, we know that the government in Britain has been taking a leading part all the way through in the negotiations of the treaty which-there is no denying the fact now-has been made necessary because of Soviet Russia's aggrandizing and subjugative, if We know the political group in Canada which is
