Mercy Flight From Stewart

A mercy flight by Queen Charlotte Airlines brought Mrs. Gus Gidlund, long time resident of Stewart, to Prince Rupert General Hospital for medical treatment yesterday afternoon.

She is reported to be in "a moderately critical condition" after a fall at Stewart, in which her hip was fractured.

Mrs. Gidlund is a widow, her husband having died here a few months ago.

The Brazilian nut gives an edible oil something like olive oil and the nut is good for cattle feed.

Blackwood On Bridge

By Easley Blackwood

When the cards are breaking right, the optimistic Miss Brash is really a killer. Here is another hand where poor old Mr. Dale suffered because of Miss Brash's aggressive tactics.

Both sides vulnerable. South dealer.

North (Miss Brash)		East (Mr. Dale)
S-4 8 7 6	H-4	S-3	H-Q 9 8 2
D-A	D-K 5	D-Q J 7 6 2	C-K 5
C-10	C-K Q J 8 7 5	C-9 3 2

South (Mr. Champion)		West (Mr. Muzzy)
S-A K 9	H-5	S-5 4 2	H-4
H-K 5	D-10 9 8 4 3	D-K 5	D-Q J 7 6 2
C-A 6 4	C-K Q J 8 7 5	C-K Q J 8 7 5	C-9 3 2

The bidding:
South 1D 2C 2S 4T Pass
West 3S Pass 5C Pass 6S All pass
North 2S 4T Pass
East 3S Pass 5D Pass

Her bid of four hearts was surely on the forward side. She had wonderful distribution, but her lack of high cards should have made her content with a simple bid of four spades at this point.

The four-heart bid sounded like a slam try to Mr. Champion. He seldom makes allowances for the temperament of his partner like Mr. Dale does.

He doesn't make any bidding errors himself and he bases his actions on the assumption that his partner, too, is always bidding correctly. This often gets him into trouble but it sometimes makes him lots of points, too.

Mr. Champion's five club bid was meant to tell his partner he had the ace of that suit. He took Miss Brash's five diamond bid to mean that she had that ace. So, holding such good fits in both of her suits, what was he waiting for? He put the hand into six spades.

Mr. Dale made the good opening of a trump. Miss Brash won in her hand with the ten of spades and led the jack of hearts. Mr. Dale did not cover and the jack was allowed to ride. Mr. Muzzy winning with the ace.

A trump return here will beat the contract because then declarer will be able to ruff only one round of hearts in dummy and must therefore lose another heart trick to East's queen.

But Mr. Muzzy, upholding his dismal record of never doing the right thing in a crucial situation, returned the king of clubs. Miss Brash won with dummy's ace, cashed the king of hearts, went to her hand with the ace of diamonds, led another heart and ruffed with the king of spades.

Then she led a club and ruffed it and followed with the fourth round of hearts, trumping with dummy's ace of spades. On this trick Mr. Dale's queen of hearts died a needless death.

Now Miss Brash has only to enter her hand by trumping a

PRINCE GEORGE — Prince George elected three aldermen and approved a bylaw authorizing the purchase of a building for Royal Canadian Mounted Police headquarters at the civic election yesterday.

The aldermen elected were:
Harold Assman 511
Eugene Gabriele 439
John Aitken 436
Nestor Iozovsky and Gordon Nicol were defeated.

The vote on the bylaw authorizing the $15,000 police building purchase was 502 for and 117 against.

Gory Visitor At Newstead

Charging that her husband had been beating her, a native woman with her face badly bleeding hurriedly entered a news stand late yesterday afternoon. As it appeared that the quicker attention was given the case, the better, the woman was soon off the premises. Blood marks dropped over copies of the Daily News and stained the hand of a customer who had turned the door knob.
