99 TAXI TAKES ONE-POINT WIN FROM G. AND A.

The second game of the city fastball schedule went to 99 Taxi Saturday night in the seventh inning when the taximen broke a 9 to 9 deadlock with a single run to win from Gordon and Anderson.

Pete Postuk brought in the winning run after getting on base on balls. He made the final stretch of the circuit on a single by Christoff who chose the right moment to make his only hit of the game.

Gordon and Anderson looked like the money team in the first couple of innings, scoring three runs, while 99 Taxi remained scoreless until the third.

In the first, James, Gordon and Anderson centre fielder, singled and came home on a fielder's error, while in the second Cole scored on a double and Whatman dove home on an error after getting a base on balls.

The taximen got on the score board in the third inning by marking up four runs, Pierce, Forman and Hartwig hitting singles and Postuk making the circuit after getting to first on a field error.

In the fourth, Whatman tied the score for Gordon and Anderson when he got on base on an error and was brought home by Moxley. The storekeepers took the lead in the fifth when Moxley and Dell came home.

The score went to 9-4 for Gordon and Anderson in the top of the sixth when Guthrie, Moxley and Dell each hit two-baggers and scored. Cole also doubled but was left on base when the side retired.

In the second half of the sixth, 99 Taxi brought in five runs to tie the score, then proceeded to take a one-run advantage in the seventh.

Winning pitcher was Boyo Gurvich, who struck out one batter, allowed two walks and 11 hits. Bob Moxley, Gordon and Anderson hurled, struck out six, allowed five walks and eight hits.

SAVOYS BLANK MERCHANTS IN SUNDAY BASEBALL GAME

A fourth-inning break in what had previously been a scoreless game started Savoy on their way for their second victory in the current baseball season at Roosevelt Park Sunday afternoon, resulting in them blanking Cliff Dahl's Merchants by a score of 9-0.

The vociferous hotelmen argued Umpire Benny Winkle out of calling the game midway in the fourth because of weather after they had got the victory scent in their nostrils. In the face of united demand by the Savoy, he allowed the game to continue for a damp nine innings.

That fourth inning saw 12 Savoy men stand up to the plate and resulted in six runs from seven hits off Merchant pitchers Maundrell and Eliuk. Foster got the first hit of the innings, singling to right field. He was followed by Scherk who singled to left field. Arney drove one past second base. Bruce Simundson hit an infield drive and Pavlikis doubled. Lindsay singled to right field. Davis singled to left field.

Foster scored on an error by Schroeder. Simundson brought Scherk home. Arney was brought home by Pavlikis. Simundson and Pavlikis scored on Lindsay's single. Lindsay completed the circuit on a hit by Davis.

After the hotelmen had clouted five hits off Maundrell, Manager Cliff Dahl put Eliuk on the mound to try and stem the tide. Eliuk's initial efforts were a bit wild but the hits slowed up.

Two Merchants' errors in the fifth resulted in two more runs for Savoy. Bruce Simundson got on first on a fielding error by Merchant shortstop Bob Smith and Pavlikis, who singled to right field, was advanced on an error by Jones. A single by Morgan scored both runners before the side was retired.

Major hit of the game was Scherk's triple in the ninth. The youthful Savoy second baseman laid one into right field just past second base bringing rousing cheers from his team mates and the few, hardy remaining fans in the stands. He was brought home by Arney.

Merchants got a hit in the second inning off Jack Lindsay, who in the sixth, one in the seventh and two in the ninth. Dominato singled in the second. Hartwig and Linney in the sixth, Abel in the seventh and Abel and Hartwig in the ninth.

ic words: "Holy Mother, what a mess!"
Meanwhile the Canadian Pacific and Canadian National Railways have announced an embargo of all railway traffic. The embargo was announced last night following a meeting of railway officials. No attempt will be made to bring trains for at least 72 hours. Officials of both lines will meet again Wednesday when the situation will be reviewed. Meanwhile some 45 Pacific Coast bound passengers of C.N. TransCanada train flew to Victoria from Edmonton yesterday. They had been held in Edmonton because of floods in British Columbia. They were flown to the coast by TransCanada Airlines planes.

C.P.A. is maintaining its regular schedule with coastal points.

NATIONAL DISASTER
Meanwhile the flood situation over the whole province, which government officials described as a "national disaster" and of "fantastic proportions" has yet to reach its peak.

The Navy, Army and Air Force threw all their resources into combined rescue operations.

The list of flooded ghost towns continues to grow. Agassiz, Dewdney, Harrison Mills, Hatzic, Uxal, Pacific, Cloverdale, Glenview and Nicomen Island are uninhabited.

About 1,000 refugees have already arrived in Vancouver. Others are still at Mission.

Sunday, the Fraser River flood victim, Edward Simpson, claimed British Columbia's third 12-year-old deckhand, was drowned when he slipped from the deck of a tug.

In Vancouver, the Board of Trade established a flood emergency relief with an immediate objective of $1,000,000 to aid flood victims.
