BRITAIN WINS IN
400-METRE RELAY

OLYMPIC STADIUM 7.—Great Britain won the 400-metre Olympic relay final today after United States although finishing first, had been disqualified. Canada's four-man team yesterday qualified and finished fourth in the final today. The Canadian team—Don McFarlane, London, Ontario; Jimmy O'Brien, Toronto; Ted Haggis, London, and Don Pettie, Calgary—finished second in the qualifying heat.

C.N.R. Emerge as Leaders Of City Fastball League

C.N.R.A. 28, GORDON AND ANDERSON 7

C.N.R. Athletics emerged as winners of the City Fastball League schedule last night when they brought the season's regular league play to an anticlimactic ending by defeating the lowly Gordon and Anderson team 28 to 7 in the most lop-sided game seen at Gyro Park in many a day.

As a climax to what has been a good fastball schedule, the encounter was a clear-cut flop. It had everything, including bats and balls, but somehow the vital ingredient of competition which has prevailed in most games was missing.

However, it is doubtful if any of the fans, including the most wholehearted G. and A. rooters, had much hope that the merchants would win the game. For C.N.R.A. it was looked on as pretty much of a routine chore which had to be performed before they could lay undisputed claim to top position in the league.

By performing the chore in yeoman fashion, the railroaders made it unnecessary for the two second-position teams, 99 Taxi and General Motors, to play their final game, set for tonight. Even if it were played, it could not possibly alter the league standings.

Instead, 99 Taxi and General Motors will meet Monday night in the first game of the semi-final playoff series. This will be a best-of-three series with the second and if necessary, third games played on Wednesday and Friday of next week.

Winner of this series will have the opportunity to meet C.N.R.A. in a three-out-of-five series for the championship, probably the following week.

As to last night's game, little can be said other than at the end of the fifth inning, C.N.R.A. was ahead of G. and A. by a score of 19-0. G. and A. scored their first run in the sixth following.

STUFF...

With the decision of the Football Association endorsing the action of the special committee in upholding the protest of the High School against the Battery's win of July 28, the standings of the Gihuly Cup are as follows:

Battery	2	4	1	11	7	8
High School	2	3	2	13	12	7
Legion	2	3	3	10	15	7

With the protested game between the Battery and the High School the only game outstanding, the replay of this match on September 1 will decide the winner of the competition. The Battery can win the trophy by defeating or drawing with the High School. The students will need to win the game to win the trophy. It provides an interesting set-up.

According to the grapevine the Battery will turn out a new and very valuable player in their next game. It is none other than Ian Dunbar, the C.
N.R.A. star softball pitcher, who also plays a bang-up game of baseball. Reports state that Ian has starred in Fraser Valley soccer. He plays on the right wing as a rule. He should be an asset to the already strong Battery eleven.

The Stuart Shield will begin on Friday, August 27 when the Battery and High School meet.
The winner of this will meet the Canadian Legion in the final on Labor Day, Monday, September 6.

During Thursday evening's Football Association meeting talk turned to the Connaught Cup, Dominion Football champion trophy, the final of which start today. One player was prepared to bet 5 to 1 that the Montreal Carsteels would defeat Vancouver's St. Andrew's. Well that started things. It is interesting to note that 20 years ago New Westminster Royals won from Canadian Nationals of Montreal two games to one.
The Royals had to come from behind to win the first game.
They lost the second 1-2 but won the third game 6-1.

Then it came out that Jack Wilson had played for the Winnipeg Scottish in a Connaught Cup game in a preliminary round in 1920. He was only in the prairie capital for a short time but Dan McNeil, manager of the Winnipeg Scottish, persuaded him to turn out. Wilson had consented to play only because the Scots were short-handed, as he was already booked to leave Winnipeg on that evening's train. The Scots had a taxi waiting to take him to the train on which he and his wife were to leave for B.C. Jack says that, as he had not time to get a rubdown or shower following the game and he was on the train for a couple of days, he was so stiff that he didn't get over the effects for weeks.
Well, what could you expect, an Irishman playing for a Scottish team?

The old-timers, and as many others as feel like it, will hold a work-out on the Acropolis Hill on Monday evening.

The "double bill" arranged for a week from Sunday is already arousing a considerable amount of interest. The
