Banker Is Retiring

Retiring from the service after 43½ years, the last twelve at Prince Rupert, Robert G. Hopkins, manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, will be leaving here early in May. His successor will be Edward Boulter, at present manager at Revelstoke. The change becomes effective May 2.

Mr. Hopkins, who plans on leaving here May 4, accompanied by Mrs. Hopkins, to make his home in retirement at Gibson's Landing, Howe Sound, came to Prince Rupert February 23, 1938, from Winnipeg where he had been assistant manager of the main branch. He started his banking career in the village of Cayuga near Hamilton, Ontario, and his assignments since that time have been at Brantford, Hamilton, Montreal, Halifax, Shelburne (Nova Scotia), Sutton (Quebec), Halifax, Calgary, Winnipeg, Hamilton, Toronto, Vancouver and Winnipeg.

During his stay here Mr. Hopkins has become highly esteemed both in business and personal circles. He has been a member of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce and the Rotary Club. His departure and that of Mrs. Hopkins will be regretted by many friends.

The new manager here, Mr. Boulter, has been at Revelstoke for the past two years, having come there from the prairies. Coming here with him will be his wife and two young children. They will reside in the suite at the Leeds Apartments where Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins have been living.

GIVES WIFE ADVICE

"Do you mind a mere male having something to say about washdays? My wife keeps my shirts sparkling white, which is important in my business. She tells me the secret is Reckitt's Blue, which prevents clothes turning yellow. She takes no chances with anything that may damage fabric. Just a swish or two of Reckitt's Blue in the final rinse is all there is to it. The fact that Reckitt's Blue costs only a few pennies a month makes sense to me, too."
