Attlee Says No Election

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister C. R. Attlee has replied with a firm "no" to demands raised in some sections of the Labor party for a general election this year. A group of Left Wing Labor supporters has been advocating an early election.

Nothing short of a Parliamentary defeat will cause Mr. Attlee to call an election before 1951, it is believed in informed quarters.

Blackwood On Bridge

Another of Mr. Master's partners at the club is my friend Mr. Muzzy. As nice a fellow as you ever met is Muzzy. But a terrible player. Every hand you play with him is a hazard. He seldom counts trumps. When he has them solid he usually leads an extra round to make sure they are all out—except when he forgets what trumps are.

IN RE ESTATE OF IVAR MARTINSEN OKSVOLD (OKSVOLD), DECEASED. INTTESTATE

TAKE NOTICE that as Administrator, duly appointed by the court, of the estate of Ivar Martinsen Oksvold (Oksvold), who died at Prince Rupert, British Columbia, on the 28th day of June, 1950, I require all creditors and others having claims against the said estate to send the same to me, properly verified, at the address mentioned below on or before the 31st day of October, 1950, after which date I shall proceed to distribute the estate to those entitled by law, having regard only to such claims of which I shall then have been notified.

AND FURTHER TAKE NOTICE that all persons indebted to said estate are required to pay their indebtedness to me forthwith.

DATED at Prince Rupert, B.C., this 21st day of September, 1950.

GORDON F. FORBES, OFFICIAL ADMINISTRATOR, PRINCE RUPERT, B.C.

On today's hand, for example, it appeared best to let Mr. Muzzy play a heart contract, but look at the way Mr. Masters' soft-pedaled his good hand. The result justified his tactics.

West opened the queen of diamonds against the three heart contract. Mr. Muzzy won with the ace on the board and led the singleton club. East hopped up with the king and led a trump which dummy's king won. Now Mr. Muzzy led to his king of diamonds and followed with the four of clubs which was trumped with dummy's seven of hearts.

A frown creased Mr. Muzzy's brow as he found it increasingly difficult to get off the board. Finally he led the last diamond from dummy and West won and put dummy back in with a trump. At this point dummy had nothing but spades and Mr. Muzzy had to lead away from the king-jack of spades and give the enemy two tricks in the suit. He lost another club, too, for down one. "Such discrimination," he muttered, entirely without reason.

Mr. Masters agreed it was a tough-breaking hand. He could see nothing to gain by telling his partner that four hearts could have been made by setting dummy's spade suit instead of trying to ruff out the club losers.

Ernest Unwin returned to the city this morning on the Chilkotin from a week's visit at Tiel with E. S. Richardson.
