LEGION LADIES HOLD MEETING

Committee reports, selection of a nominating committee and plans for the forthcoming fall bazaar were among business transacted at the monthly meeting of the Canadian Legion Women's Auxiliary recently. Mrs. J. S. Black, the president was chairman.

A furnishing committee, consisting of Mrs. R. A. Bean, Mrs. W. Anderson and Mrs. W. Murdoch, was appointed to purchase furniture for the ladies quarters in the new Legion building.

Mrs. A. Hardy and Mrs. F. Ellison were chosen as a nominating committee to bring in names of candidates for the forthcoming election of officers.

Mrs. W. Rothwell displayed a number of novelties to be sold during the forthcoming fall bazaar.

Mrs. J. S. Black, who recently returned from Mission, where she attended a meeting of the provincial Women's Auxiliaries, submitted a report on those proceedings.

Assistants were chosen for the Armistice dance on November 11 and the sick visiting committee delivered reports on their activities.

Following the business session, refreshments were served by the entertainment committee. Winner in the raffle of a vase was Mrs. C. Barker.

Top Women in Public Health

LEGION CANVASS SHOWS SUCCESS

While the Canadian Legion's Poppy Day committee is tallying up the returns from its city-wide poppy sale last Friday and Saturday, its members are preparing to recognize the work of generous volunteers from city schools whose canvassing on downtown streets aided the drive materially. Complete returns from the poppy sale, which will be used to aid wounded veterans of two world wars, have not been added up yet but preliminary reports from the committee indicated that the city and district responded with "satisfactory" generosity.

Mrs. J. S. Black, President of the Legion Women's Auxiliary which was in charge of the Poppy tag day on Saturday, was sincere in her praise for the work done by the 49 children from Borden Street, King Edward, Annunciation and Conrad Street schools

$90,000 Building Permit Is Issued

Largest building permit to be issued in Prince Rupert so far this year was issued Monday at the City Engineer's office. It provides for construction of a $90,000 theatre for Famous Players Canadian Corporation and was taken out by J. Harry Black, local manager of the company.

Excavation work for the two-storey 60 by 100-foot theatre was begun recently and construction work is expected to commence shortly. Mitchell and Currie are the contractors. The theatre is to be named the "Totem."

Children who took part in the canvass were: Rocky Terry, Bill Wainwright, Rodney Phillipson, Allan Hemmons, Joanne Way, Arthur Turcotte, Tony Troth, Bob Watts, Ricky Watts, Ralph Weick, John Dumas, Billy Mitenko, Gordon Lugin, Louise Wood, Larry Eycheson, James Faulkner, Patsy Faulkner, Eddie Finlay, Don Finlay, Carl Jackson, Maureen O'Leary, Jerry Wilkins, Ellen Roper, Marian Smith, Yvonne Jackson, Lonny Patten, Jimmy Moorehead, Patsy Phillipson, Jack Antone, Roy MacDonald, Brian Fitzgerald, Robert Jensen, Patrick Rougeau, Jean Currie, Adena Hamlen, Carole Moorehouse, Joyce Moorhead, Darleen Olsen, Eddie Cloutier and Jim Hunter.

Legion Auxiliary ladies who took part in the canvass were Mrs. W. Rothwell, Mrs. F. Ellison, Mrs. Hardy Jr., and Judy, Mrs. W. Garbutt, Mrs. Adelman, Mrs. J. R. Elfert, Mrs. Nesbitt and Mrs. Wright Davies.

Fashion Show

Men Take Spotlight

Hit Scored by East End Young
People Last Night

The men of Prince Rupert took over the spotlight last night at the Capitol Theatre with a very fine presentation of "Fashions for 1950." And the capacity audience was delighted with the entire proceedings.

The stage was set in cabaret style with members of the St. Peter's Anglican Young Peoples appearing in full formal dress to act as a musical background singing the favorites of today and yesterday as the many models appeared on the stage breaking through the pages of a huge book entitled "Fashions of 1950."

The first set of fashions included the very latest in fine dress wear with gabardine again appearing to be the favorite in both overcoats and suits, while many other suits and sports clothes were ably displayed by the male models.

The boys' section drew many rounds of applause and a few good laughs as the youngsters paraded through their part of the show in all the latest boys and tween agers clothes.

Final set was the work sequence with rain and work clothes, being modeled for every trade and to suit all kinds of weather.

Male models were Bobby Woods, Ernie Kennedy, Johnny Fitzgerald, Frank Yanitski, Wilf Taylor, Harold Skalmerud, Jack Smithson, S. Hamilton, Dave Jones, Ronnie Powell, Eugene Holliston and James Brenner, in the men's section. While the boys included Johnny Marchant, Jackie McGinnis, Ronnie Gasnuas, George Marchildon, Bill Marchant, Morris Alger, Bobby Knutson, Jerry Taylor, Bobby Mitchell, Donald Haudenschild, Rocky Terry and Tommy Moorehouse. The show was under the direction of Doug Wood and Mel Skalmerud.

Clothes were by courtesy of Rupert Men's and Boys' Wear. The St. Peter's Y. P. Choral group, under the direction of Helen Marchildon, included such
