Students Briefed For Civic Election; Make Nominations

At a high school assembly on Friday in preparation for Future Citizens Day, H. D. Thain, city clerk, outlined briefly the procedure followed in normal civic elections. He suggested adaptations needed for the purpose of electing a Junior City Council.

Alf Worthington, J. C.'s Chairman of the Future

Citizens' Day committee, gave students an idea of what was to be gained by their participation in the affair.

Students' Council President Frank McFadden was in the chair. Those nominated for mayor were Charles Forbes, Frank McFadden, Eric Moore and Irene Reckie. Campaign speeches will be made on Tuesday at the Civic Centre.

ARMISTICE DAY

Although there have been many articles written on the subject of Armistice Day, there will always be more. It is thus easy to think of another subject in connection with November 11. Take, for example, its effect upon students. As we have often been told, November 11 is set aside in remembrance of those who died in two World Wars. Let us hope there will be no more war but, if there is, who will fight, die, and be remembered on future Remembrance Days? We realize that it will be you and I, the students of the world. Should there be war in the near future, we, though not responsible for causing it, would be called upon to fight it. There may be little we can do to prevent war but, when the decision does come to rest in our hands, let us strive to prevent it. We will remember.

Bo-Me-Hi Girls Not Downcast

The Bo-Me-Hi girls suffered defeat in their first game of the 1949-50 season at the hands of Lom's with a score of 24 to 15. Nevertheless, the girls gave a good account of themselves, considering the advantage of their opponents' weight and experience. The game wasn't as rough as usual, but the High School plays were continually broken up and their defence was not strong enough to stop Lom's drive. However, at their next game against Peoples Store, on November 15 they hope to come out on top. During this season it is hoped that the team will steadily improve and perhaps take the Ladies League again this year.

For November 11

They shall not be forgotten
They who tranquil lie
Who for love of their king and country
Did die.

They shall be remembered
On through many years
With pride and with much thankfulness
Not tears.

Cannot we, remembering
Try to make wars cease?
Seek for love and understanding
Thus peace.

G. PROCTER 11-2.

High School To My Little Bateese

To my little girl friend who doesn't think I'm her friend
I would like to send this little dedication as a friend.
As when we walk to school I try to talk
Of the things we have in thought,
But my little girl friend, she thinks not,
For she says to me: "If you have not a million dollars
I will not wash your collars." Oh woe is me!
Oh where art thou, of beautiful brow
Who gives a smile which would make me walk a mile?
That is why I do not understand thee.
Yet you follow me like a dog to his master
And say I am not a good master.
You tell me I act like a little two year old
But yet I am a big nineteen year old.
Or maybe it is that you have grown too old
You little sixteen year old,
To be told how to hold that young man
You think is a ham.
Oh Romeo, where art thou?
