Walter Huston, Actor Passes

HOLLYWOOD — Walter Huston, noted Canadian-born screen actor, died of a heart attack yesterday in his home here. On Thursday he had celebrated his sixty-sixth birthday and appeared then to be in fine health.
Born in Toronto, Mr. Huston started his stage career as an end man in a minstrel show at Massey Hall in 1900. His first appearance in New York was as a legionnaire in "Julius Caesar" from which he was dismissed because he forgot his lines. He kept on his stage career and later went into the movies in which he achieved fame. His last triumph was in "Treasure of Sierra Madre" in which he won an Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences for outstanding achievement in a supporting role.
Mr. Huston interrupted his acting career for several years and became a civil engineer.

TORONTO HAS BIG FIRE ON FRIDAY

THE WEATHER

Synopsis
Southern British Columbia is at the very edge of a wide bank of unsettled weather which brought rain and snow this morning to most of the west while Vancouver and Victoria reported clear skies. Seattle, Spokane and San Francisco were reporting rain. The British Columbia coast and the central interior seem to be out of the path of the unsettled weather. Sunny skies are forecast for today and Easter Sunday. However, frequent cloudiness and a few showers, are expected to drift up from the south into the valleys of the southern interior on both days.
Forecast
North Coast Region—Mostly sunny but occasionally cloudy with passing showers. Remaining cold at night. Northerly winds 15 miles per hour. Lows tonight and highs to-morrow—At Port Hardy—35 and 55, Sandspit and Prince Rupert, 35 and 50.

RAISES KING-SIZE FUND TO FIT KING-SIZE CHEQUE

There's nothing small about the cheque which is to be presented to the National Cancer Institute of Canada at a forthcoming meeting in Ottawa of the Canadian Cancer society, by the Alberta division. Baptist Head In B.C. Is Coming

The president of the British Columbia Baptist Convention, Rev. Dr. O. E. Daniel, will visit Prince Rupert from April 12 to April 24 and will speak at the Rotary luncheon Thursday next. Dr. Daniels is at present minister of the West Point Grey Baptist Church in Vancouver while he is in Canada on extended furlough from his work in the Canadian Baptist Mission in India. He is the author of several books and is a well known missionary lecturer in Canada and other parts of the world. He brings with him many interesting curios, moving pictures, and the world's finest set of slides on the life of Christ. He will hold services each night in First Baptist Church on week nights and at the three regular services on Sundays, from April 12-24.

Hit By Train; Two Men Hurt

Two employees of Columbia Cellulose Co. were injured Thursday as they were struck by an eastbound C.N.R. freight train which was pulling to a stop at Watson Island. Jacob Hansen, 50, suffered a crushed right leg and cuts and abrasions. He was admitted to General Hospital here. His condition this morning was reported satisfactory.

The other man, 19 year old Robert J. Enright, received a slight cut on the forehead and obtained first aid treatment at the camp. The noise from the power plant is believed to have drowned out the sound of the oncoming train and they were unable to hear it. The accident took place at approximately 4:45 p.m. The east-bound freight left Prince Rupert at 4 p.m.

Details of the agreement were not made known.

Regular Baptists in All Day Prayer

On Good Friday morning, thirteen of the congregation of the Prince Rupert Regular Baptist Church met for prayer. The theme for the day was Elijah's prayer in the eighteenth chapter of the first book of Kings. As Elijah had prayed that God would let the people know that He was the only true God and that he, Elijah, was His witness and servant, living as God had commanded him that the people would be turned back to God, so those assembled made this their prayer.

The song services between sessions were led by Mr. Blackaby who chose appropriate hymns that contributed to the spirit of the meetings.

At noon a basket lunch, set by Mrs. W. Lund, was enjoyed by those present.

The meeting resumed in the afternoon with the attendance increased to 17. During the first session in the afternoon he different departments of the church work were especially remembered in prayer—the Sunday School, Sunbeam and Mission Band classes, Ladies' Mission Circle, and Junior and Senior Young People's groups. A time of singing and Bible reading was followed by the last session of prayer.

Put Self In God's Shoes

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (CP)—A man the state claimed had stepped "into the shoes of God" to kill his blind, cancer-stricken brother was convicted today of voluntary manslaughter. A jury of four men and eight women convicted Harold A. Mohr, 36-year old tannery worker, of the rifle-slaying of brother, Walter, at their home at nearby Coploy March 8. The jury recommended mercy. Walter died after being given a cup of coffee by Harold. The latter said his brother had asked him out of his misery.

Freakish Weather— White Easter In Maritimes

Only British Columbia Will Enjoy Balmey Touch of Spring
TORONTO (CP)—A southward surge of Arctic air is going to give the most of Canada a chilly Easter. By tomorrow a deep-freeze will reach from the prairies to the Atlantic Coast, official weather forecasters say. Only west of the Rockies is weather expected to be in keeping with the season.

Freezing cold will extend into the northeastern part of the United States.

The worst April snowstorm in more than 77 years dumped a foot of snow along the Nova Scotia coast early today and spread into New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island.

The Weather Man promises the Maritimes a white Easter. Most of those areas had a Green Christmas.
