ARE HONORED BY FAREWELL PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cameron, who will be leaving shortly for Victoria to make their future home, were honored with a surprise party Saturday evening when some thirty friends gathered to pay parting tribute. The evening was spent in singing and dancing and the feature of the proceedings was the presentation of a lovely photograph album by Mrs. Ed. Morrow on behalf of the company assembled. The album contained a picture of each guest. Mrs. V.
McDonald read an appropriate poem of her own composition.
Mr. Cameron spoke suitably in accepting. A large cake was duly cut by Mrs. Cameron. After dancing had been enjoyed until the small hours with music by Russell Cameron and Josephine and Vincent McDonald, the party broke up with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" and "They Are Jolly Good Fellows."

Avenue at 9:45 last night.

CANVASS HAS DUAL PURPOSE

Canvassers for donors for the Red Cross blood clinic who will start their sweep of the city this week will be rendering a dual service when they approach householders for their assent to give a pint of blood.

In addition to taking the names of blood donors, they will make a list of persons desiring to take advantage of the free tuberculosis x-ray clinic which will visit the city on August 15 under auspices of the provincial Department of Health.
Purpose of the mobile clinic is to x-ray every person in the area to determine whether or not he or she has any traces of the lung disease.
A visit of the clinic two years ago resulted in a large section of the population receiving x-rays which either contributed to their peace of mind by assuring them that they were free of tuberculosis or gave them the advantage of early advice if they did have it.

Miss Jeanine Coupal, public health nurse at the Prince Rupert Health Unit, received assurance from those who attended the Red Cross blood committee meeting last night that canvassers would take names for the tuberculosis clinic while they were canvassing for blood donors.
