IS LEAVING
GOVT. SERVICE
Dan Doswell, who has been stationed at Prince George as district inspector of motor vehicles for the public utilities branch of the provincial government, is leaving the government service at the end of April to come to Prince Rupert and assume a position with Columbia Cellulose Co.

BAPTISMAL SERVICE AT TERRACE CHURCH
TERRACE—The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Martin was given the names Heather Joy, at a baptism service at St. Matthew's church on Sunday afternoon at which Bishop Gibson officiated. The baby wore a hellebore christening robe of Madapolam and daintily embroidered. The godparents were Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Dodds, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Johnstone. Mrs. H. King acted as proxy for Miss Mollie McKenzie of Vancouver. Following the ceremony tea was served at the Martin home for the immediate christening party. The christening cake was the top layer of the baby's parents' wedding cake.

Smiles and Chuckles

"Miss Brown," said the colored parson as he led her into the brook for baptism, "Tse gwine to wash out every spot of sin yo's got."
"Lawsy, Parson," she giggled, "in dat li' ole shallow creek?"
Baby: "I want my bottle."
Mother: "Shuddup, you sound just like your father."
Judge: (to husband whose wife had just been awarded a divorce) "And I have decided to give your wife $50 a month."
Husband: "That's fine judge. And once in a while I'll try to slip her a couple bucks myself."
Girl: "Am I the first girl you've ever kissed?"
Guy: "You might be—your face is familiar."
Willie Johnson, a sawed-off, beaten down little man, was arraigned in a Texas court on a felony charge.
The clerk intoned: "The State of Texas versus Willie Johnson."
Before he could read further, Willie almost broke up the meeting by solemnly declaring: "Lawsd What a majority!"
The teacher was explaining to the class the meaning of the word "recuperate." "Now, Tommy," she said to a small boy, "when your father has worked hard all day, he is tired and worn out, isn't he?"
"Yes, ma'am."
"Then, when night comes and his work is over for the day, what does he do?"
"That's what mother wants to know," Tommy explained quickly.
