

BIBLE DRIVE AT TERRACE

TERRACE — The Protestant churches will co-operate in a canvass of the town during the first week of October to aid the British and Foreign Bible Society. The demand for Bibles in Europe and non-Christian lands far outruns the supply and citizens are being asked to give liberally to the enterprise.

The British and Foreign Bible Society was founded to encourage the wider circulation of Scripture without note or comment and now published the Bible in 1040 languages.

OLD-TIMER BURIED AT BURNS LAKE

The funeral of John Matheson was held from the United Church at Wistaria on Friday, the Rev. Robert McPhee officiating.

Mrs. Arthur Sheldford presided at the organ, the voluntaries including "Meditation" and the "Kyrie Elson" followed by full congregational singing of "Unto the Hills" and "Abide With Me."

From a personal friendship with the deceased, the clergyman told of his love for children, and how it was his custom while entertainments were in progress to take care of the babies while the mothers enjoyed a brief respite. In his sermon, Mr. McPhee paid full tribute to the many virtues and sterling character of "Shorty" as he was known from Prince Rupert to Prince George during the construction of the Grand Trunk Pacific.

John Matheson arrived in America in his fifteenth year and immediately took up his career as a cowpuncher, with such famous horsemen as Clarence Snyder, now of Francois Lake, and Mexican Tom who rounded up the wild cattle of

THIS AND THAT

"Last one in's a rotten old tomato!"

TERRACE

A problem for the Department of Horticulture is: "How can a volunteer potato plant grow tomatoes?" Well Mrs. H. McLeod of Terrace has such a phenomenal species growing in her garden and to say the least it is beginning to puzzle a lot of people as to just how this could happen. There are about six fair-sized potatoes on the roots of the plant and several dozen small green tomatoes growing on the stem.

Mrs. Addington and her daughter Lois, both of Portland, Oregon, are spending a short vacation in Terrace with their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Alger.

Joan Attwood, who has been holidaying in Eastern Canada and the U. S. A., returned to Terrace to resume her studies at the Terrace High School.

Jimmie Stewart, well known in both Terrace and Usk, arrived in Terrace Sunday. The visit is for business reasons but he is taking time out to visit many of his friends while in the locality. Accompanying him on the trip were Miss C. Petrie and Jimmie's mother whom they peiked up at Smithers. Mr. Stewart has been associated with the real estate business in Vancouver for the past few years.

FRANCOIS LAKE

Lawson Sugden and Bob Jones left on Tuesday's train for Vancouver, where they will attend the U.B.C.

Word has been received that Betty Munro is taking the normal school course in Winnipeg. Pat Taylor has started her studies at normal school in Vancouver. Mrs. Taylor went south with her, and expects to return home shortly.

Reg. Partington lost a valuable three-year-old cow. She came home as usual at milking time, apparently in good health, but in a few hours was dead. Hemlock poisoning is blamed for her death.

Fred and Mrs. Lindsay have moved to the Landing from the Verdun Lookout.

The church was beautifully decorated for the Thanksgiving Service on Sunday morning. There were flowers in each window, also on the altar. Offerings of vegetables and fruit were piled in front of the altar. The church was filled to capacity with worshippers.

The school is too small for the increase in the number of students, and last week it was used for double shift with the Vanderhoof for medical care.

THE QUEEN CHARLOTTE ISLANDS IN LATER YEARS

After the death of Jimmy Nelson of Wistaria, he made his home at the Nelson Ranch and helped to bring up the Nelson children, James and Minnie. He ran the Nelson farm successfully for many years.

His declining years were spent with the Nelson family and he passed quietly away in his eighty-first year, surrounded by the ones he loved and who loved him most sincerely.

Friends from all over the Lakes District attended the funeral, the casket being covered in beautiful floral offerings.

Honorary pallbearers were Paddy Carrol, Sam Eakin, Barney Mulvany and Robert Nelson. Active pallbearers, who carried the casket from the church to the graveyard, were William H. Harrison Jr., Jacob Lund, Olof Anderson, William Bickle, Arthur Sheldford and John Sheldford.

EASY GAME

WOODRIDGE, Man. (C) — Mike Gerardy of Woodridge driving near here with a party of friends, saw six bears and shot one with a 22 rifle. The party then drove home, got a heavy calibre rifle and returned to the scene to find the bears hadn't moved. They bagged three more, two escaping into the bush.
