

FACE THE LORD . . . IN MASKS-In church of all places, 75 members of the Klu Klux Klan continued to keep their faces masked during the church ceremony in Atlanta, Ga. The Kluxers, including Grand Dragon Samuel Green, are shown entering the basement of the Inman Yards Baptist Church. They heard Rev. Ed. Peek say several kind things about their organization.

TYPONE AND BRIDE PRAY ARTER WEDDING - Hearing mass after their wedding in the church of Santa Francesca Romana, Rome, Tyrone Power and his bride, Linda Christian, kneel in prayer. Power shades his eyes with his left hand, on the third finger of which is the new, plain gold wedding band.

DISCUSS SCANDINAVIAN DEFENCE—Prime ministers of the three Scandinavian countries meet in Copenhagen to discuss the North Atlantic Defence Alliance and the Scandinavian Defence Pact. They are (left to right): Einar Gerhardsen, Norway; Hans Hedtof, Denmark, and Tage Erlander, Sweden.

R.C.A.F. CARRIES OUT SPECTACULAR RESCUE OFF HUDSON BAY ICE FLOE-Harold

Dunne of Toronto and Ottawa, Arctic Bay rad to operator for whom the 4,000-mile trip past the magnetic pole was initiated, was first man to be rescued. Photo shows him being lifted on stretcher from rescue plane after being flown from the stranded aircraft on Hudson Bay ice to known to him, she was rushing from Ottawa to be at his side.

Churchill. He later telegraphed his wife in Otta wa to tell her he was fine and not to worry. Un-

, chored offshore, and the submarines Nichelio and Marea, tied up in foreground, are shown at Augusta, Siciliy, on the eve of their departure to be turned over to Soviet Russia according to the terms of the peace treaty. They form the first contingent of Italy's payment in naval craft. Actual turn-over to Russia was to take place in Valona Harbor, Albania.

ITALIAN SHIPS GOING BEHIND "IRON CURTAIN"-The battleship Giulio Cesare, an-

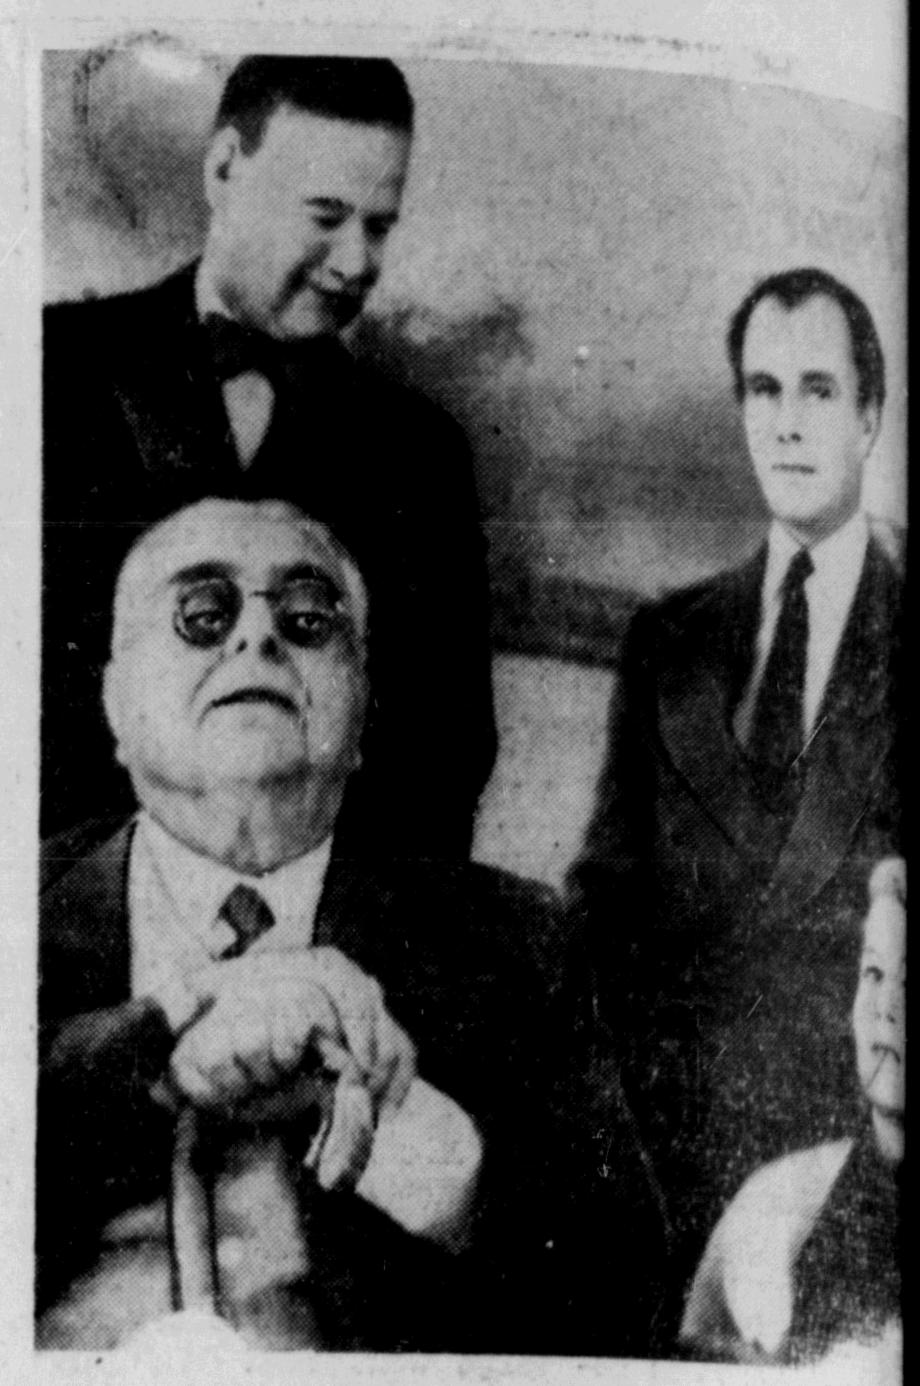

ARCHDUKE OTTO BLASTS REDS-Archduke Otto of Hapsburg, pretender to the Austro-Hungarian throne, is shown (centre) at a press conference in Madrid in which he denounced Hungarian Communists for the arrest of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty. The archduke said that there is nothing true in the alleged plot of which the cardinal is accused. One of the charges made by Hungarian authorities is that the cardinal conspired for the restoration of Otto to the throne. The archduke held the press conference at the home of the Count of Saldana.

'GOVERNOR'S PAINTING-Viscount Alexander shows a good sense of color in his painting and his perspective is good. This is the opinion of Rowley Murphy, well-known Canadian artist, who ran a critical eye over an Ottawa Valley landscape in oils which the governor-general presented this week to the Toronto Men's Press Club. "I'd like to see him work on something larger—a six foot canvas, say," the artist added. (CP Photo)

"MISS CHURCHILL" -- Miss Edwardine Poitras, fur queen of the Trappers' Festival at The Pas, Man., who was named "Miss Churchill." Girls competed in the contest from many districts in the north country. The festival was highlighted by the Canadian championship dog derby.

RITA PASSES FAMILY SCREEN TEST- Looking like a Hollywood character man awaiting a director fabulously rich Aga Khan leans on his cane (front) sits beside glamorous Rita Hayworth, his prospective in-law. Standing in rear are Prince Aly Khan (right secretary. The Aga has found Rita to be very "charme

IN TUNE ON ANGLO-FRENCH POLICY-Completing day survey of world affairs, British Foreign Secretary and vin (left) is pictured in London with French Foreign 1 Robert Schumann. The two statesmen agreed on there toward dismantling of German industrial plants for m despite the attitude of the United States. The latter is for a considerable reduction in the number of plants moved.

HEIR TO FORTUNE - David Marshall Telfer, 50% Cornwall, Ont., naval architect and marine surveyor, sall day he had received word he is one of eight heirs to ! 000 estate left by Charles Telfer of Wellington, New Zeam died without a will in 1927. Telfer is shown here with studying plans for a new home.

WANNA RASSLE-No, it's not Gorgeous George clamping a headlock on Yvon Robert. It's Maurice (The Rocket) Richard of Montreal Canadiens tussling once again with a big, bad Maple Leaf player in a mid-week encounter at the Montreal Forum. The headless gent on the ice is Bill Ezinicki, Leaf wing and longtime feuder with Richard. The chaps with the feet and hands are officials and players. Toronto won 4-1. (CP Photo)