

WORLD EVENTS IN PICTURES

BULL—Spring Farm Sovereign Supreme lived up to his name when he took the grand champion's ribbon at the National Exhibition livestock show. Owned by J. W. Streetsville, Ont., the bull also won for his owner as premier breeder of the show. Holding the animal is W. J. Walcott of Elba, N.Y. (C. P. Photo)

DOLLAR CHAT—Sir Stafford Cripps, British chancellor of the exchequer, centre, chats with Canadian Finance Minister Douglas Abbott, right, as they leave a session of the Anglo-Canadian financial conference in Washington. British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin is at left. (C. P. Photo)

ALPINE RESCUE—Five men risked their lives in a successful attempt to rescue Alpine climber Ian McKay, 31, who suffered a broken leg and head injuries after a 75-foot fall down the face of a hanging cliff on Red Tusk peak, 45 miles northwest of Vancouver in the Tantalus range. The crack mountain rescue party which flew to Kay's aid is shown on one of the easy patches on the 7,000-foot mountainside. Kay's basket stretcher is visible. (C. P. Photo)

RECEIVES DELEGATES—Four delegates to the 17th General Synod of the Church of England in Canada at Halifax discuss church matters during a reception given by Lt.-Gov. J. A. McCurdy of Nova Scotia at his official residence. They are left to right: Canon W. F. Payton of Prince Albert, Sask.; Canon T. W. Isherwood of Halifax; Rev. J. A. P. Kent, chaplain to the Archbishop of York; and Rev. H. R. Hunt of Toronto, assistant clerical secretary to the lower house of the Synod. (C. P. Photo)

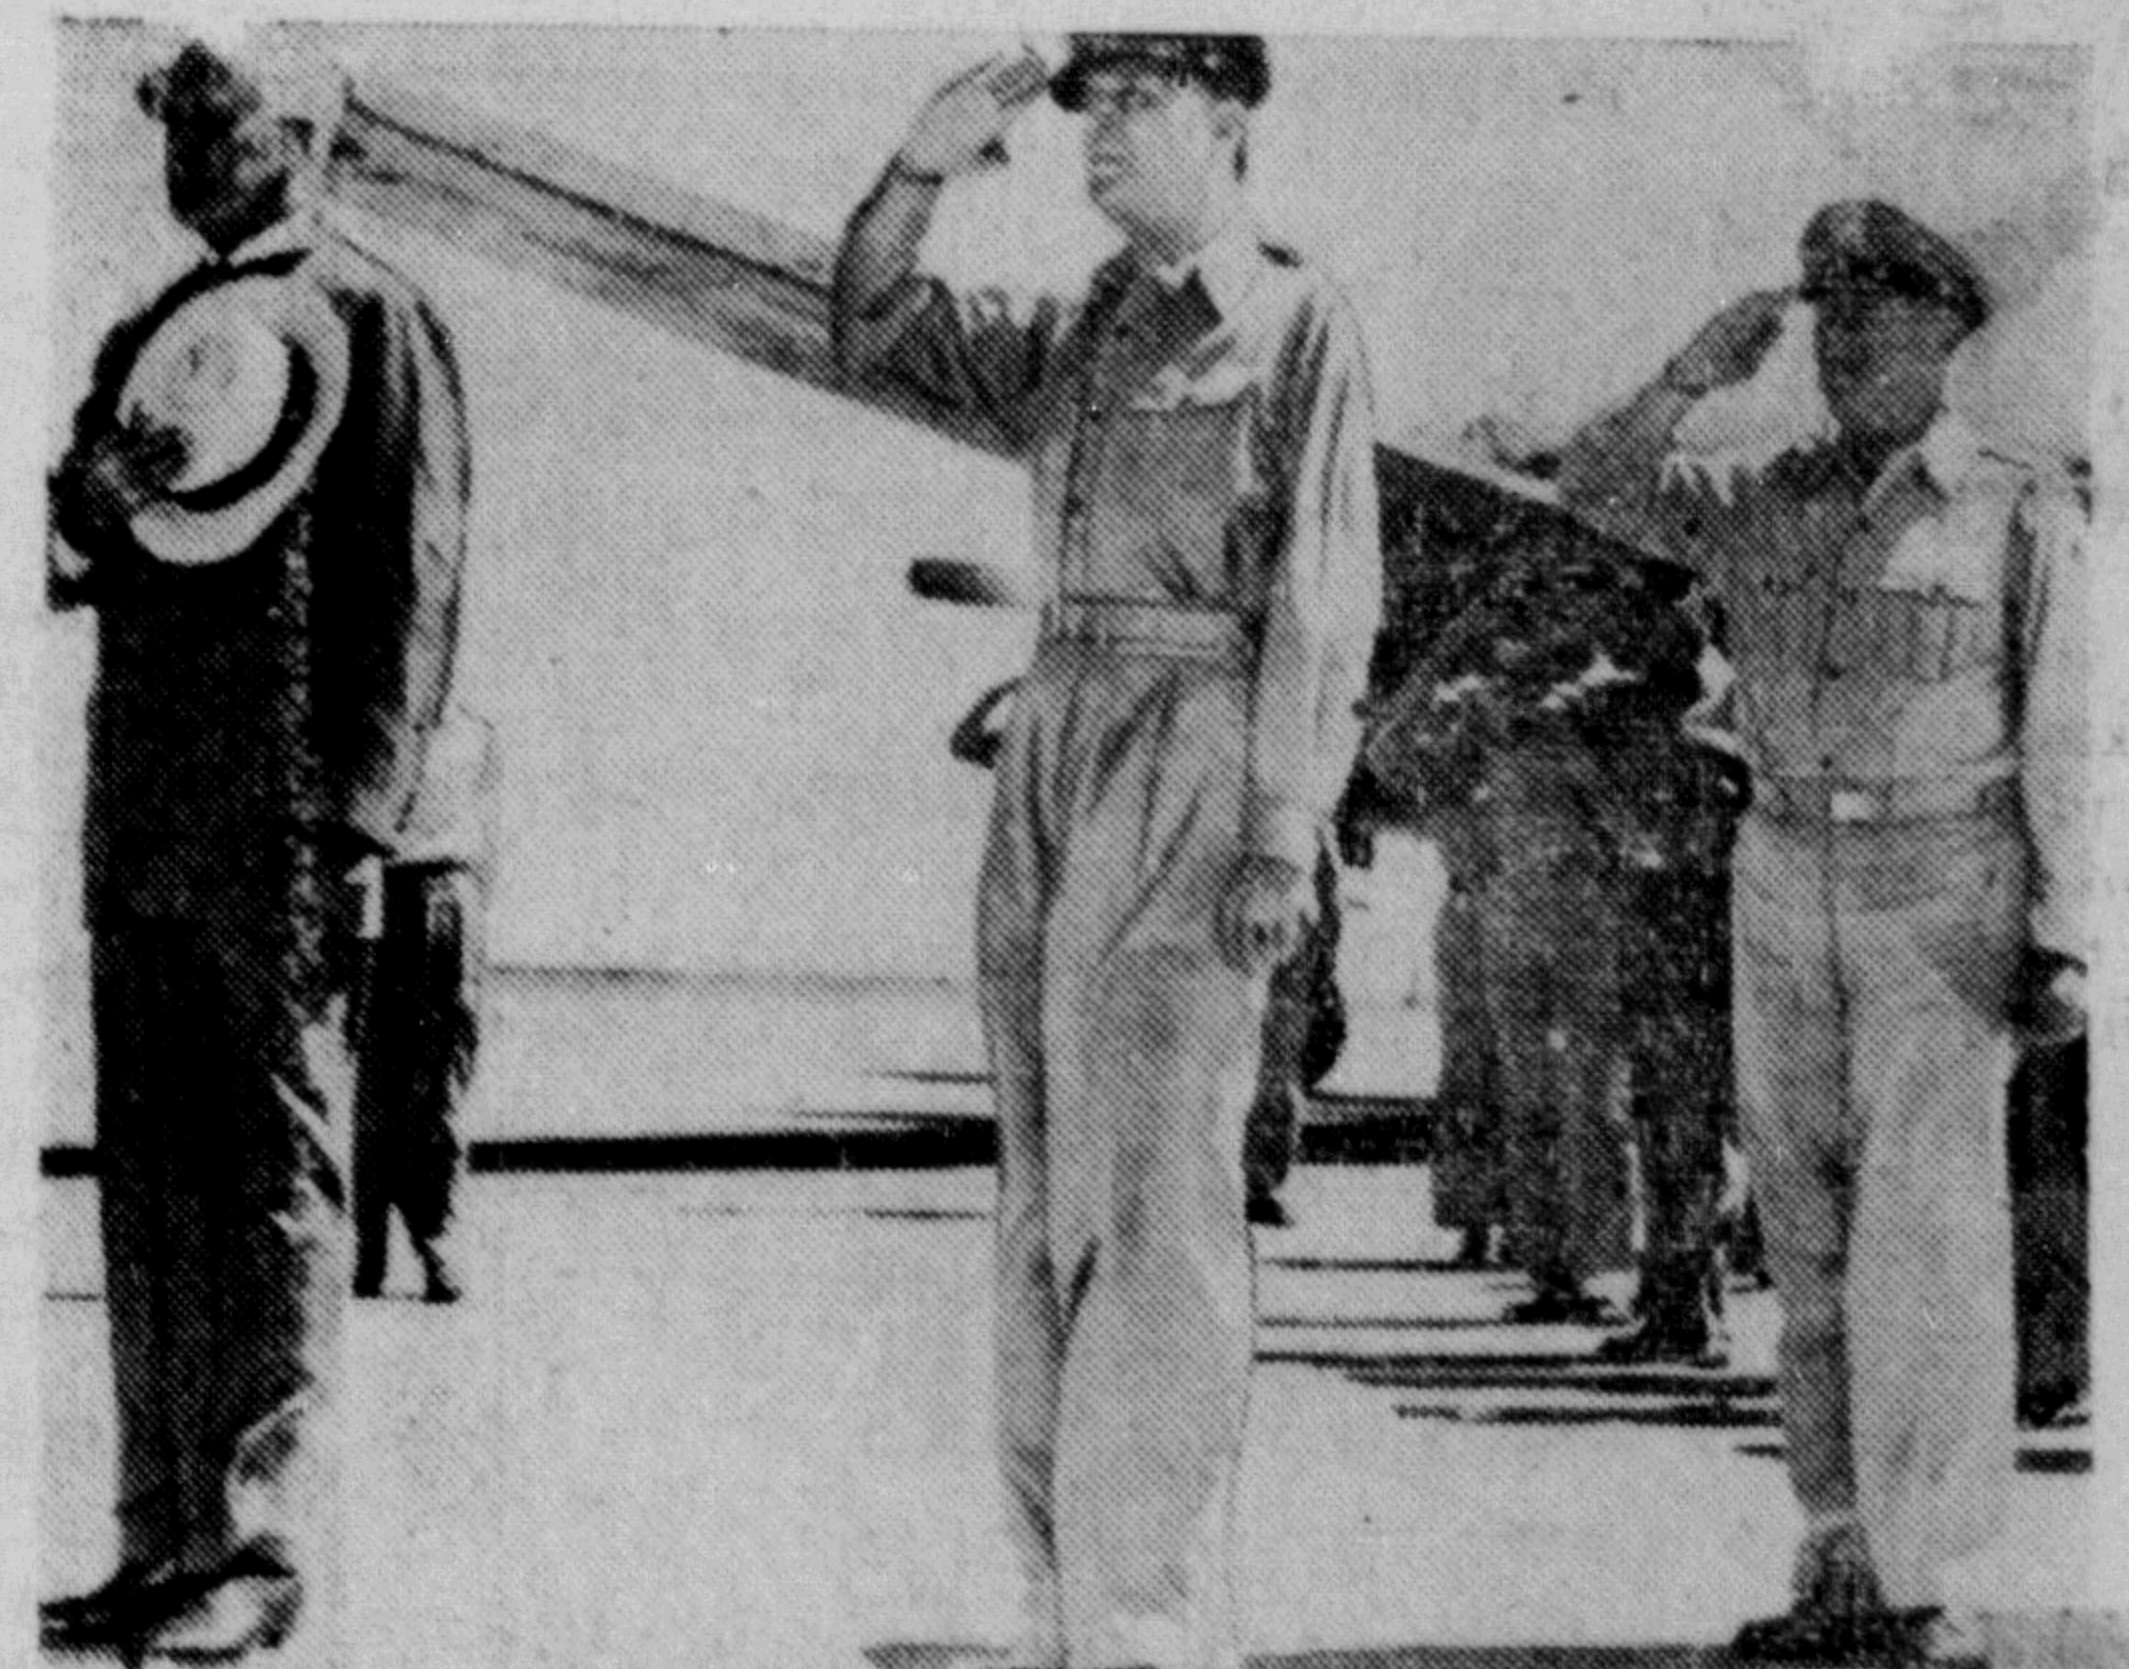

SET FOR DOLLAR TALKS—Top Canadian delegates to the Canada-U.S.-U.K. financial conference at Washington. External Affairs Minister Pearson and Finance Minister Abbott are shown checking over documents during a recess in the talks. (CP Photo)

CYCLIST—Believed to be the oldest active motorcyclist in Canada, W. B. Henry, 92, of Goderich, Ont., is shown here on a pleasure trip. Recently granted a new licence, Henry learned to operate a motorcycle until he was 70. (C. P. Photo)

KEEPING IN TOUCH—Mlle. Benoit Colard who met her first Canadians at her home near Caen, where Canadian troops made their headquarters during the bitter fighting in Normandy in 1944, is busy renewing the acquaintance. Visiting Canada for L'Accueil Franco-Canadien, which helps welcome Canadian visitors to France, she is shown scanning international news teletype in the Ottawa Bureau of the Canadian Press. (C. P. Photo)

EVENT OF MacARTHUR'S HEADQUARTERS—Tracy S. Voorhees, new U.S. under-secretary of army, stands at attention beside General-of-the-Armies Douglas MacArthur as he is welcomed with full military honors on arrival at Haneda airport in Tokyo aboard General MacArthur's personal plane "Bataan," for two-week visit. MacArthur said that Japan had faithfully adhered to the terms of the surrender and should be granted a peace treaty. Danger of communism had passed, he said.

HEROES' WELCOME FOR NOVA SCOTIANS—When Stanley and Colin Smith of Dartmouth, N.S., arrived in Dartmouth, Eng., they became town heroes and were carried in triumph along Dartmouth streets. Alert to traditions of the sea, the town's residents appreciated the courageous feat of the two brothers, who sailed the Atlantic in their 20-foot boat, Nova Espero, which they made themselves in a Halifax basement.