PHONE 24 222 Second Av.

Mrs. G. H. Seaman and little daughter, who have been spending several weeks at Van Andria, Texada Island, with Mrs. Seaman's mother, arrived in the city on the Prince George this morning on her way back to Terrace. She was met here by Mr. Seaman and they will proceed home by tonight's train. Mrs. Seaman's father, Rev. H. A. Bain, recently died at Van Andria.

LUMLEY'S SUCCESSOR—Guarding the net this year for the Detroit Red Wings, last year's Stanley Cup winners, is young Harry Sawchuk. In pre-season training at Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., his performance has been nothing short of sensational. The fast-moving net-minder will fill the shoes of Harry Lumley, traded to the Black Hawks in a major player deal following the end of the 1949-50 season. (CP PHOTO)

SEES NO DECLINE IN MEAT PRICES

The president of Canada Packers Ltd., J. Stanley McLean, which was in northern BC waters recently, said he could not say when the price of meat might go down. The reason of this was that prices were fixed in the United States. Mr. McLean came north on a fishing trip, and about ten days were spent in Queen Charlotte Island regions. He was a guest of friends in the south.

Mr. and Mrs. Reg Kelsey returned to the city on the Prince George this morning from a trip to Vancouver.

Catholic Bazaar Is Social Centre

Newly renovated Annunciation School Hall will be the city's social centre today and tomorrow as the annual Catholic bazaar is held. The proceedings go on both afternoon and evening. Ladies of the city started moving early to the affair to be received by Mrs. E. L. Coughlin, president of the Catholic Women's League.

There are many attractions such as the "baby" booth, also a beautiful assortment of plain sewing and fancy work, unexcelled home cooking, a hot-dog and cake stand, and a fish pond to delight the children. Tea is being served both afternoons with bingo and amusements in the evening.

The grand drawing takes place Thursday evening.

In charge of the tea room is Mrs. C. P. Balagno while Mrs. M. P. McCaffery and Mrs. J. Fred Ritchie are pouring.

Other ladies in charge are: Sewing—Mrs. J. L. Blain and Mrs. H. F. Glassey (St. Ann's); Mrs. M. J. Saunders, Mrs. F. Schaeffer and Mrs. J. F. Bugyinka (St. Theresa's).

Home Cooking — Mrs. G. R. Brett, Mrs. Leo Diron and Mrs. D. Mulroney.

Hot Dogs and Coke—Mrs. S. Dumas and Mrs. E. Telseth.

Fish Pond—Mrs. Louis Amadio and Mrs. L. Colussi.

Baby Booth—Mrs. J. Gorman, Mrs. L. Charbonneau and the Misses Delphine and Charlotte Balagno.

Bingo and Amusements—N. R. Young, G. R. Brett, J. Comadina and J. Bruce.

Grand Drawing—Mrs. Waite Lahti.

Craft Club Draws Many

The beginners leathercraft class met for the first time at the Civic Centre on Monday night and sixteen enthusiastic students learned the fundamentals of skiving and cutting leather as well as the first steps in thonging. There is still room in this class for further registrations. The next meeting will be held in two week's time.

Latest word from Miss Jean Travis regarding the Department of British Columbia extension department courses to be held at the Civic Centre next week is that the classes will start on Tuesday as Monday is Thanksgiving and a holiday.

The Junior Boys met in the workshop for their first session on Monday afternoon and looked over the projects which are to be made this year. The Monday group is for boys from 6 to 9 years of age while the 10 to 12 year old boys meet on Thursday afternoons. It is hoped that the boys in these age groups will take the opportunity of the wood-working sessions. Owing to the Junior Boys having their boy's games period on Monday at the same time as the woodwork, the Monday session of woodwork has been changed to Tuesday at the same hour after school.

The teen age girls are being requested to come to their craft class on Monday instead of Tuesday as Tuesday has been set aside for the boys woodwork.
