SWIM CLASSES ARE STARTING

Weather permitting, swimming classes will be given on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday afternoons at McClymont Gyro Pool for boys and girls from the ages of 8 to 15.

There will be three age groups. Those boys and girls from 8 to 10 wishing to receive instruction will meet at 3 p. m.
for one-half hour instruction.
Ages 11 to 12 will meet at 3:30
while the last group, ages 13
to 15, will have their half hour from 4 to 4:30. The pool will be closed to the general public during these hours so that the staff can devote their time to this venture. Mrs. Gatzke, Miss Pottle and Mr. Miles will be in attendance on the playground during the summer months and will supervise these lessons.
Registration for the classes will begin Wednesday afternoon at McClymont Park with any of the above members of the staff.
A small registration fee will be charged for these lessons and the money will be used to buy sport equipment for the playgrounds.

FATHER OF YEAR—Syl Apps, former captain of Toronto Maple Leafs of the National Hockey League, has been named father of the year by the Canadian Father's Day Council. The council cited his sports record and the encouragement he has given young Canadians as a coach of various hockey teams and as Ontario Athletic Commissioner, a post from which he retired early this year. Peering over Syl's shoulder at the $100 cheque that went with the award are his son Bob, 7, and daughter Joanne, 8. The younger members of the Apps team are Carol, 5, and Sylvanus, 2. Syl turned over the cheque to the Society for Crippled Children. (C. P. Photo)

TENTH INNING HOME RUN FAILS TO GIVE PRINCE RUPERT VICTORY

Ketchikan 5, Prince Rupert 4

A tenth-inning home run by Miner Simundson gave Prince Rupert All-Stars a last-minute lead in the second game of the international baseball series at Ketchikan Monday afternoon but it was snatched away from them by a two-run recovery which gave the Alaskans victory by a score of 5-4.

The loss was a somewhat bitter pill for the Prince Rupert team for it had dominated the game through most of the innings, only to wind up with a 3-3 tie in the ninth. Simundson's homer into left field gave what looked like a winning run for the locals.

However, they reckoned without Ketchikan's staying power, for the northerners bounced right back in the second half of the tenth to score two runs which brought them their second win in two days.

Despite the fact that Prince Rupert took a 2-0 lead in the second—a lead which it held until the eighth, the game had a feeling of uncertainty, particularly on account of the way Prince Rupert batters continued to clout high flies to the eager Ketchikan fielders.

Ketchikan's southpaw pitcher George Russell, a veteran of semi-professional baseball in California, gave up only four hits in the 10 innings, but his fielders did plenty of work to keep Prince Rupert off the bases.

Jack Rosedale, Prince Rupert moundman, also a port side hurler, gave up 13 hits in 9½ innings, but struck out 10 batters.

Russell struck out only one batter in 10 innings.

In the second half of the crucial tenth inning, team manager Alex Bill withdrew Rosedale, replacing him with Dick Letourneau. At that time, Ketchikan had scored the tying run—off a base on balls which was driven home by Leon Bass. Letourneau faced a situation which no pitcher would envy.

With two men on bases, he struck out Russell, providing a ray of hope for the locals. However, Bud Taylor, Ketchikan shortstop, clouted Letourneau for a single which scored Dick Johnson for the winning run.

To get back to the second inning which gave Prince Rupert its initial lead, Nick Pavlikis got on base on a fielder's error and was followed to first by Cliff Dahl on a single. Arney then got on first on a fielder's error, filling the bases. Don Scherk made an infield hit which was muffed by shortstop Bud Taylor, scoring both Pavlikis and Dahl.

Jack Rosedale turned in a sterling performance in the first inning when he struck out two men with one down and the bases loaded. Carol Bass got on base on a single, Gail Jones by a base on balls and Shorty Contreras on a fielder's error. Then Pinky Tomlinson, a notable hitter, came to the plate. Rosedale fanned him for the second out. He was followed by Mark Busanich who also struck out.

Ketchikan scored in the third when Carol Bass singled, stole to second and was brought home on a single by Gail Jones.

The fifth inning presented another interesting situation which must have cost Rosedale a few gray hairs. With one man out, Ketchikan got three men on bases—all on singles—then put in a pinch-hitter named Bill Easton.

Easton attempted a sacrifice bunt, which was picked up by catcher Dave Abel, who hurled to first. First baseman Stan Cornwell threw to second, catching the runner off base for a double play which retired the side.

Ketchikan went into the lead in the eighth when Dick Contreras doubled and was brought in by Erickson. Tomlinson, who got on base on a fielder's choice, came home on a long fly to right field by Johnson.

Nick Pavlikis singled in the ninth and was scored by Cliff Dahl, who grounded out. Score even.

Then came Simundson's home run in the tenth, which was offset by two scoring runs by Ketchikan as the rain began to fall heavily.

Battery Wins Over Legion

Soldiers Still Unbeaten in City Football League

Heavy Battery, yet to be beaten, continued its winning ways in last night's North Star Trophy City League Football competition by defeating the Canadian Legion eleven by two goals to nil.

Legion won the toss but Battery was the first to press. A Parkhouse to Aex Gomez move was broken up by Smith. Gomez retrieved the ball but shot over. Vuckovich stopped Greer. Smith stopped Parkhouse. Eby's long clearance was picked up neatly by Armstrong but Dunbar stopped the Legion surge. An Alexander to Murray to Armstrong move gave Battery some concern but Morgan cleared capably. Vuckovich was stopped by Smith. Dunbar was prominent. Murray picked up the loose ball but Morgan caught and cleared his long drive. Battery pressed as a Veitch to D. Gomez to Vuckovich move was stopped by Eby. Parkhouse was nearly through but Eby was on the spot again. Mazzone did well to stop Murray as Legion attacked but Ferguson stopped Armstrong and Alexander. D. Gomez' low drive was blocked by Eby, Ward collecting the ball but driving over. Murray made a good run but Dunbar stopped the drive. Play moved quickly to the other end with Krause clearing D. Gomez' long shot. Ferguson broke up a neat Baxter to Newbolt combination. Murray and Armstrong continued, forcing a fruitless corner as Legion still pressed. Parkhouse' shot was blocked. Then Ward drove a hard shot over the bar. Play continued interesting as a Veitch to Ward move was well stopped by Bremner. Murray got past Mazzone but F. Gomez broke up the play. Mazzone stopped Armstrong neatly.

After the interval Battery moved to the attack although a Veitch to Ward move was partly stopped by Bremner. Battery closed in. Vuckovich's weak shot was stopped by Krause. Then, with the Legion defense in a tangle, D. Gomez drove a hot one across the goal mouth but Eby and Greer scrambled the ball away. Krause was forced to save again as Parkhouse came close. Legion broke loose with a neat Armstrong to Newbolt to Murray combination (Continued on Page 5)
