J. Bowman of the customs service sailed this afternoon on the Camosun for Bella Bella.

National Employment Service office at Prince Rupert will be closed on Saturdays during the months of July and August, according to instructions received by the local manager, E. V. Whiting.

Dr. Olga Lazarczuk of the Miller Bay Hospital medical staff returned to the city at the end of the week after a brief trip to Vancouver in company with two patients from the institution who are taking special treatment in the south.

Miss Elizabeth Brewis, who is relieving as stewardess on the Prince Rupert-Sandspit run of Canadian Pacific Airlines while Miss Dorothy Peachey is away on vacation, was particularly interested in a picture which appeared in the Daily News a few days ago of a group of Australian girls who arrived recently from "Down Under" to join Canadian air lines. Miss Brewis came from Melbourne and expects to spend couple of years in Canada.

George W. Morrow died recently in Vancouver in which city he had made his home, after leaving Prince Rupert where for years, during pioneer times he was one of the community's most active citizens. Before this, he lived in Metlakatla, having served there as government agent. He was for a while, in retail trade here, as a meat merchant.

Mr. Morrow came originally from the Maritime provinces.
After moving south he was for a long time identified with a biscuit-making enterprise.

SHOOTING WITNESS—Mrs. Frances Hodgson, a terrified witness to a courtroom shooting which took three lives, is shown emerging from the Port Arthur Family Court. Secretary to Judge B. J. McKittrick, she crouched behind a table as 53-year-old William Gray shot down her employer and Gray's estranged wife before pumping two bullets into his own chest during a non-support hearing. All three shooting victims later died in hospital. (C. P. Photo)

MISS P.N.E. IS AGAIN SOUGHT

Manager Harry Black of Capitol Theatre hopeful of Producing Again

The search for British Columbia's most beautiful girl is on and Manager J. Harry Black of the Capitol Theatre is hopeful of producing in Prince Rupert another "Miss P.N.E." like Miss Margie Brain of last year who, of course, is not eligible again.

A thousand dollar scholarship and a trip to Hollywood with chaperon for the victor; an all-expense trip to Vancouver with chaperon for out-of-Vancouver finalists, meeting with Charlie McCarthy at the Pacific National Exhibition, a stage appearance at Vancouver's Orpheum Theatre are the principal prizes.

The Pacific National Exhibition, in conjunction with Famous Players Canadian theatres throughout the province, is staging the contest to find "Miss P.N.E." to reign over the exhibition to be held from August 24 to September 5 inclusive this year.

QUIETLY WEDDED SATURDAY NIGHT

Miss Esther Dohns of Vancouver and Carl Modin of Campbell River were united in marriage at 6 o'clock Saturday evening in a quietly performed ceremony at the home of the officiating clergyman, Rev. Earl Soiland, of St. Paul's Lutheran Church.
Witnesses were Mrs. Soiland and Alfred Jensen. The groom is engaged in gillnetting here for the summer. At the close of the season he will proceed with his bride to Campbell River to take up residence.

FIRST OUTING OF FUN CLUB

The members of the newly formed Fun Cub will have their first outing this Wednesday afternoon. The group will meet at the Civic Centre and proceed to the Salt Lakes for a picnic and swim, weather permitting. Registrations for the Club are being received by Rowley Miles at the Civic Centre or at the McClymont Park playgrounds.

RECOVERY OF REAL VALUES

Just as the world had recovered from the jazz era after World War II so it would regain its equilibrium from present tendencies by a return to Christian values, predicted Rev. George E. Sendall, pastor of First Presbyterian Church, in the course of sermons on Sunday. In the morning, the pastor discussed the cardinal virtues of prudence, temperance, justice and fortitude and in the evening the theological virtues of faith, hope and charity. He declared that Christianity and communism could never harmonize since one owed responsibility and allegiance to the spiritual God and the other to the materialistic state.

'FRINTON-ON-SEA, Essex, Eng.
—For the first time in its history this seaside resort now permits bathers to put up dressing tents on the beach. The former bathing huts were washed away by heavy seas.
