Santrina Takes Empty Scow North

Her scowload of 635,000 board feet of spruce lumber unloaded at the dry dock wharf, the Alaskan tug Santrina left port at midnight Thursday to return to Juneau to load the same scow again for a second shipment of Alaska lumber.

The Santrina docked here at 5 p.m. Wednesday with the scow in tow to transship the lumber over C.N.R. lines to the eastern and midwest states. The shipment was made to test the feasibility of using the Prince Rupert route to market Alaska lumber in the continental United States.

If the scheme works out, lumber will be shipped through this port at 10-day intervals, Ed Ellis, assistant district manager of States Steamships, Seattle, said.

NEW OFFICERS RECOMMENDED

A slate of officers and directors for the 1948-49 year was presented to the Prince Rupert Rotary Club Thursday afternoon by a panel of past presidents.
The officers will come up for election at next week's luncheon meeting. Nominations also will be received from the floor. Recommended for election were:

President, D. G. Stevenson.
Secretary, H. T. Lock.
Treasurer, Alex McRae.
Directors — George Mitchell,
M. F. Stuart, E. T. Applewhite, Sergeant — Arms — Fred Scadden.

Today in Sports

TORONTO MAPLE LEAFS WELCOMED

TORONTO—Ten thousand enthusiastic Torontonians crowded the City Hall Square yesterday when the Toronto Maple Leafs were welcomed home from Detroit where they won the Stanley Cup Wednesday night.
It is the first time a Toronto team has won the league championship and the Stanley Cup in the same year.

Lethbridge Two Up On Pt. Arthur

PORT ARTHUR, Ont.—A third period rally netted Lethbridge Native Sons a 5 to 4 win over Port Arthur West End Bruins Wednesday night to take a three games to one lead in the best of seven final for the Western Canada junior hockey championship.

ANCHORAGE MEN GROWING BEARDS

When barbers jump a hair, cut up to two dollars a shot, the men of Anchorage (Alaska) declare a revolt. That is what is being said, up north, and its realization appears to be probable. Long beards and heavy manes are coming up. It was on April 5 the increase was announced. Haircuts for adults are $2 and $1.50 for children. A shave costs $1.50.

SHORT SPORT

Babe Ruth, one of baseball's most colorful figures, attended the major-league opening at New York 12 years ago as a spectator for the first time in his career. The ovation he received from the fans was probably the greatest a former player had ever received.

Barney Ross, holder of the world's lightweight boxing title, abdicated 13 years ago because he could not make the 135-pound weight limit of the lightweight class. Later the same year he won the welterweight crown and held it for three years until he lost it to Henry Armstrong.

George (Twinkletoes) Selkirk of Huntsville, Ont., picked to succeed baseball's mightiest hitter, Babe Ruth, made his debut with New York Yankees with a slashing single at New York 12 years ago. Selkirk is now managing a Yankee farm club.

Winnipeg Monarchs climaxed a spectacular Memorial Cup series at Toronto when they white-washed Copper Cliff Redmen 7 to 0, 11 years ago. Each of the first three games in the best-of-five series was decided by a lone goal, Redmen taking one game and the Monarchs two.

MINSTRELS GROOM FOR ROTARY SHOW

Cast of the Rotary Club's minstrel show which will be shown at the Civic Centre on the evenings of April 22 and 23 and on the afternoon of April 24 are putting the final touches to their weeks of rehearsal under the talented leadership of Charles Balagno.

Many of the 34 choristers admit that they find themselves going about humming the melodies straight from the scores which they will sing when the curtain goes up. The "end men" have trouble to keep from slipping into fugal negro draws in their routine affairs.

"It's fascinating and its catching," said one. "The audience can't help but enjoy it—we're getting such a bang out of it ourselves."

"The end men have been properly warned not to upset the timing of the show by laughing at their own jokes."

Mr. Balagno is directing the chorus and the 12-piece orchestra which will accompany it.
Interlocutor is F. E. Anfield and the "end men" are Martin Stuart, Tom Christie, G. R. S.
Blackaby and P. H. Linzey. Stage manager is T. N. Youngs and E. T. Applewhite is prompter.

Sandwiched between the wit and antics of the "end men" will be such southern choral masterpieces as "In the Land of Cotton," "Little David Play On Your Harp," "Ole Uncle

Moon," "Kentucky Babe" and others, as well as solos by Wilf Taylor and Andy Wyatt and pantomimes by Gerry and Jan Taylor.

The list of cast is as follows:
First tenors—H. S. Whalen, A. E. Martin, J. A. Teng, R. Van

Among the world's Treasures

TAJ MAHAL

Supreme achievement of Mohammedan art.
18 years in the building (1632-1650), this creation is of white alabaster. The eye-catching beauty of the exterior is covered with arabesques and passages from the Koran in inlaid of precious stones. Considered by many the most beautiful building in the world, it is the Mecca for millions, yearly.

In the superb bouquet and mellowness of Harwood's, the appreciative find that superb example of distilling craftsmanship.
To the discerning, it is the ultimate in rye whisky... distinctive, unchanging in its palate-pleasing goodness.
