Industrial Unity

CANADA'S two rival union groups, the Canadian Congress of Labor and the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, are to be congratulated on their unusual action in combining to release a joint statement condemning communists within Canadian unions who are attempting to undermine the United Nations police action in Korea. The union leaders were very forthright when they warned against the Canadian communists and their dupes.

The two union groups, representing about one-sixth of Canadian workers, do well to forget their differences and combine forces to face the present serious threat to democracy and world peace. It might be added that if Canada is to make its full contribution to maintaining international peace we must have industrial peace here at home. In the months to come this country will need to operate its productive capacities at full efficiency. Any Canadian or group of Canadians who seize the opportunity to force some selfish advantage or to create dissension between management and labor will make it impossible to allow that full effort. Implicit in the statement of the two labor chiefs is the need for unity in all our efforts, which can occur only if there is no serious conflict between management and labor. Management and labor can compound their interests in the welfare of all.

MAKE HUNTING SAFER

At least 95 percent of all hunting accidents each fall can be avoided if every hunter acquaints himself with the fundamentals of safe gun handling and constantly practices them. These fundamentals are simple and serve a dual purpose: they help keep hunting a safe sport and make for better marksmanship.

There is no excuse for carelessness in gun handling, whether the weapon is loaded or not. The cardinal rule of gun safety is "treat every gun with the respect due a loaded gun." Always remember—never point a gun at anything you do not want to shoot. Never leave your gun unattended unless you unload first. Never climb a tree or a fence with a loaded gun.

Carry only empty guns—taken down or with the action open—into your boat, automobile, camp or home. Whenever you pick up a gun, indoors or outdoors, always first point the muzzle in a safe direction and examine the piece carefully to make sure whether or not it is loaded.

Pointing a loaded gun towards a companion is the unpardonable sin of shooting ethics. Do it just once and you have lost the respect and comradeship of your friend, and branded yourself as a thoughtless novice or a careless, dangerous shooter with whom it is unsafe to go afield.

It is a compliment to be invited to go hunting with an experienced gunner. It means he believes you will observe all safety rules and practise good sportsmanship. Don't let him down by taking chances and you'll help make hunting a safer sport. It's just as easy to be careful as careless.

U.N. to Aid Victims of Korean Conflict

While the armed forces acting on behalf of the United Nations in Korea continue their efforts to reestablish peace, U.N. has also taken measures to relieve the suffering of millions of civilians left homeless as a result of the conflict. Here, Dr. Kamil Idil, representative of Turkey to the U.N. Commission on Korea (left) visits a refugee center at Pusan, accompanied by Dr. M. Lee (right), Korean interpreter of the Commission and a policeman of the Republic of Korea.

CHRISTIAN UNITY

About three weeks ago a group of us met Toyohiko Kagawa of Tokyo, Japan, in Toronto. We had looked forward to meeting and hearing him, wondering just what he would say. And when we met in world church groups with which group would he sit. We had no indication where he would be because, after his name in our directory, there was only one word: 'Evangelist'. That word was a simple statement of fact and of our unity in Christ.

It reminded me of a conversation a group of us had outside the Coliseum. We were talking about our ideas of God and what God meant to us in our lives. Some of us were brought up in Christian homes and some of the group were not. The question was asked of an Asian: "What is the difference between the god you now worship and the god you worshipped before you became a Christian?" The answer came immediately: "He is the same God but now I know more of Him". Can we say with knowledge and experience that God has always been the same God but now I know more of Him than I did last year this time? The unity of God and our unity in Him and greater knowledge because of Jesus Christ.

Sometimes we are really brought down to earth in our Christian living. A father one morning at family devotions was reading from Ephesians a familiar verse: "Children, obey your parents in the Lord." A couple of teen-agers sat at the table and the father said: "That is a good text, let me read it again." He read it again and continued the passage: "Ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath." Without cracking a smile one teen-ager said: "Dad, that is a good text." Yes there is unity in Christ in the home family as in the family of Christians throughout the world.

We speak our witness in personal terms. So it was with Kagawa as he spoke to us. He told us that as a boy he was baptized by a minister from Virginia of the Christian Church. He thought then that there was only one church. Since that time he has known many denominational groups and admired one for the strength of their conviction, another for their enthusiasm, another for their rich ritual. "So today," he said, "I belong to the New Testament. And like the wind I move around because God is one and Christ is one and we are one. I preach to all."

Quietly Wed At United Church

The United Church last Saturday afternoon was the scene of the wedding of Doreen Margaret Schwab and Clifford McKinley. Rev. Dr. E. A. Wright officiated. Bridesmaid was Irene Schwab, sister of the bride, Wilfred McKinley was groomsmen for his brother.

The bride, a native of Saskatchewan, was a resident at 1360 Overlook Avenue. The groom was born at Calgary and was living at 233 First Avenue.

MAYOR ENLISTS — Mayor Jack Peterson of St. Thomas, Ont., has been accepted for enlistment in Canada's special army brigade, expected to see action in the Korean War. The 38-year-old native of Dundalk, Ont., will retain his Second World War rank of major, and will be attached to the second battalion of the Royal Canadian Regiment, now training at Petawawa, Ont. He is also president of radio station CHLO in St. Thomas. (CP Photo)

As I See It

By ELMORE PHILPOTT STALIN'S SILENT BOMB

WHEN THE COMMUNISTS of North Korea launched their attack against the Southern half of that country I figured that there were only two explanations:

1. Either Stalin and Co. in the Kremlin had suddenly lapsed into gross stupidity, or
2. World Communism had become so sure of its own military strength that it felt able to risk outright world war.

Now it seems to me much more probable that Stalin and Co. have no more intention than ever of bringing on a world war. The war they are waging is primarily an economic war. They expect to ruin the western capitalist democracies by setting in motion forces which could bring financial ruin and economic chaos to the U.S.A. and countries which are dependent on her economically.

WE SHOULD NEVER FORGET that the Communists accept implicitly the Marxist-Leninist doctrine that the western capitalist economies must ultimately collapse by reason of the "contradictions" within themselves.

Hence it is not now, and never has been a part of the Marxist-Leninist doctrine that the Red army be sent crashing across international frontiers, as German armies were in two world wars.

The aim, on the contrary, is to transform the class war in each country into eventual civil war. It is the central article of faith of all Communists that in each highly developed capitalist country the Reds are bound to win out in the end because "economic determinism" is at work. Their dogmatic religion, called "dialectical materialism" marshals many arguments to convince Communists that this must come to pass.

NOW SEE HOW the above theory fits the present facts. We were already caught in a real squeeze, even before the Korean war.

On the one hand vast United States surpluses of farm products were piling up, and being kept off the markets, in order to hold up prices. On the other hand prices of all city-made products were sky-high, and swiftly going higher.

Both farmer and city workers were caught in this double price squeeze. The farmer simply could not accept lower prices for his produce, because of the prices of city goods. The city worker, on the other hand, never did succeed in getting his wage increases to catch up with the soaring cost of living.

The Canadian railroad strikes, and all our big recent strikes, have arisen from this price-wage squeeze.
By cunning or sheer accident the rulers of World Communism have therefore dropped a silent economic bomb on the U.S.A. and her allies.
"GUNS BEFORE BUTTER"
Consider these U.S.A. production quotas, as given by the New York Times:

	This Year	Future
Automobiles	8,000,000	5,600,000
Refrigerators	6,000,000	4,500,000
Television Sets	6,500,000	4,500,000
Electric stoves	1,700,000	1,200,000
Houses	1,350,000	1,000,000
Radio	11,000,000	7,000,000

The above figures tell their own story. Unless our governments reimpose price controls on goods made scarce by the armament race we are headed for disaster.
