Favorites Winners

Favorites Are Winning

JASPER—With one exception the favorites continued to win in the championship flight of the twenty-first annual Totem Pole here. The only upset was the elimination of Jack Starky, Edmonton, holder of the championship in 1933 and 1936, who lost to Eddie Oana, Vancouver, on the eighteenth green. Starky had a 20-inch putt to make, but blew it and joined the sidelines. It was a close watch throughout with not more than two holes separating the pair at any time. One former champion still remains in the running and he is playing excellent golf. He is Ed Green, of Seattle, and is now picked by the gallery as a certain finalist. In the ladies' championship Mrs. J. H. Todd, Victoria, continued her wonderful golf to defeat Mrs. Max Bell, Calgary, 3-1 and Mrs. S. Thompson, Vancouver, eliminated Mrs. J. Streit, Toronto, in the other top half game. In the lower half Mrs. R. H. Cleat, Vancouver, beat Mrs. Dunlop, Vancouver, on the nineteenth and Mrs. Shuttleworth, Toronto, had her second consecutive nineteenth hole victory in beating Miss G. Thomson.
