EXECUTION ROCK - This is execution rock, believed used by the Algonquin Indians to kill people. Legend says that one brave predicted before his head was battered against the rock that the strength of his spirit eventually would move the rock over a nearby precipice into the Ottawa River and free the spirits of all those killed. Residents claim the 2,000 cubic foot rock moved 14 inches this year. (CP Photo)

Popular Horsfall Group to Present Tuneful Show on September 13

Basil Horsfall. Singers, who Grey. have proven so popular here in local music lovers will be glad mortal" show at the Civic Cen-Ocean Falls before coming to Prince Rupert. Visit to Prince Miss K. Owen-Reece, Master J. had its full quota of passengers.

The "Melodies Immortal" program, of a highly popular type, consists of a new combination of scenes and arias, duets and quartettes from famous musical comedies, operas and operettas. It was assembled by Basil Horsfall, the original organizer of the group, who died recently while conducting a rehearsal in Vancouver. The program and the tour are being carried out just as Mr. Hersfall planned.

Karl Norman, who has been here with Horsfall Singers on both of their previous visits here. is now the manager in succession to Mr. Horsfall.

Stars of "Melodies Immortal" are Mr. Norman, tenor; Wini Hutt, mezzo-soprano; Derek MacDermott, bass-baritone, and Vera Bryson, soprano.

The latest program and the one to be shown here is hailed as and Mrs. M. Mines, New York being fast-moving, colorful and City, E. Payne, Pinehurst, Texas; melodic. It opens with a full T. B.
