COOKING OF SOUPS TO SCHOOL CHILDREN IS GIVEN UP—CIVIC CENTRE MAKING PROGRESS

TOPICS—The idea of serving hot soup to school children of the city was brought up at a meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association last week in the Orange Room. The returns from a survey showed that, while many were in favor of the idea, very few could help in the soup kitchen. Therefore the program shelved for this winter. The P.T.A. teachers are putting their concert on December at the Civic Centre. The plan will also co-ordinate with the community Christmas was a large turnout at the meeting and a good program of films through the National Film Board was presented followed by refreshments and a social gathering.

The monthly meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Anglican Church was held at the home of Mrs. Dover with Mrs. West in the chair. There was a good gathering, and plans were made for a tea and sale to be held on December 4. The members also decided to hold a carol service in the church the Sunday before Christmas if there is no rector here to conduct the services.

There was a full attendance at a meeting of the executive of the Civic Centre on Monday

ALF ATTREE OF PRINCE RUPERT IS PRINCIPAL SPEAKER AT ARMISTICE DAY SERVICE IN TERRACE

"For each one man by man has won imperishable praise,
"Each man gained a glorious grave,
"Not that sepulchre of each wherein they lie,
"But the living tomb of everlasting remembrance
"Wherein their glory is enshrined.
"Remembrance that will live on the lips
"That will blossom in the deeds
"Of their countrymen the world over.
"For the whole earth is a sepulchre of heroes
"And tablets to be set up to them in their own land
"But on far-off shore there is an abiding memorial
"That no pen or chisel has traced
"It is graven not as on stone or brass,
"But on the living heart of humanity
"Take those men for your ensamples.
"Like them, remember that prosperity can be
"Only for the free.
"That freedom is the sure possession
"Of those alone who have courage to defend it."

TERRACE—With this quotation of Pericles, Alf Attree opened the Armistice Day service in the Oddfellows Hall on Thursday morning. It was followed by two minutes' silence and the Last Post played by Bugler Sam Kirkaldy. There was a large turnout of Legion men, members of the Legion Women's Auxiliary, Scouts and Cubs and other members of the community. Rev. A. Shindler in prayer and Rev. P. H. Mallett gave the address. Mrs. Mabel Pike rendered the solo "There Are Ninety and Nine" and Miss Grace Little played the accompaniment on the piano. Hymns were "Onward Christian Soldiers" and "Almighty Father Strong to Save," with Mrs. C. J. Norrington as pianist. With the leaders on the platform was Mrs. deSage of the Canadian Red Cross Corps.

Following the Armistice Day services, a reception and social hour was held in the Legion lounge, and drew a large crowd.

FOUR YEARS AFTER—It is the same sandy beach, washed by the same waters of the English Channel but there all resemblance ends. Taken in August of this year, the top Canadian Army photo shows residents of Calvados province enjoying the pleasures of the beach at Bernieres in Normandy. The bottom photo was taken D-Day, June 6, 1944, as Canadian troops poured into Normandy. Here many Canadian soldiers who were remembered this Thursday lost their lives.

What's New at CIVIC CENTRE

SEWING CLASS—The afternoon dressmaking class is filled and making good progress. Many of the women's dresses have reached the stage where they have been fitted by Miss Dyson. The evening class, however, has room for 10 more people. It is hoped to get this number as it will make it easier to ask for more University of British Columbia Extension courses if this one is filled to capacity. As dressmaking seems to be more in demand than sewing children's clothes it has been arranged to include this in the evening course, each new member making, preferably, a blouse. The finishing touches will all be covered during the next week, these including seam finishes, zippers, collars, facings, buttonholes, pockets and fancy trimmings. A special lecture on Monday has been arranged for newcomers where Miss Dyson will explain the essentials covered during the first week of the course. This will be just before the usual lecture for everyone.

ART LESSONS—These begin the end of this month and it is necessary to arrange a time suitable for a children's group, a teen-agers and an adult's. Those interested are contacting Lawrence Kristmanson or Mrs. J. T. Harvey.

SMALL BOYS' SAWING DAY—The small boys have begun coming in eager swarms on Mondays after school. Many bring their own fret saws and next time they are being asked to bring a few spare blades to replace the many that have been broken. The small boys all saw madly as if their lives depended upon the rate. Then they paint their masterpieces. Although Rowland Miles is helped by Mrs. Mark and Allen Fredheim, it's still a pretty frantic afternoon and more helpers could be used.

TEEN AGE BADMINTON—There are so many teen-agers playing badminton this year, about 60 each time, that both the auditorium and gym are used. A similar system for play is used with them as with the adults this year. A board has been made on which their membership cards are placed. The top person on the board picks four from the eight below. This assures them all of getting an equal number of games and a fairly even foursome, also of having to be members in order to get on the board at all. As Mr. Miles has difficulty in supervising and teaching in each of the two rooms and as it means endless traffic through the main lounge rooms, a door is being cut connecting the auditorium and the gym.

SHELLWORK—Every Friday afternoon about 15 teen-age girls work busily making articles from shells. Yesterday they began the seasonal occupation of making Christmas cards. They work out their own designs, usually a flower, then choose the most attractive shells for the petals and leaves and glue them onto their design. The result is very attractive as well as useful. After Christmas Mrs. Reade will teach, instead of the girls, a group of adults who have been asking for shellwork. This teen-age girls' group after Christmas will be changed to leather work. Although Wednesday night now is teen-age leathercraft, and could be joined by the girls if they wished, it is already so crowded with High School boys that Mr. Miles has had to divide it into two groups. It is therefore, most convenient if the girls concentrate on shellwork until the New Year when a place will be found for them on the leathercraft program.

TO REFURNISH HOSPITAL WARD

Queen Mary Chapter I.O.D.E. in Regular Monthly Session

Refurnishing of the chapter's ward in the Prince Rupert General Hospital was one of the principal items of business when Queen Mary Chapter, Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire, met in regular session at the home of Mrs. J. A. Teng, Ambrose Avenue. The regent, Mrs. S. A. Kielback, was in the chair.

Final arrangements were completed for the forthcoming bridge and cribbage drive to be held at the Civic Centre.

The sum of $20 was donated to Borden Street School. There was also a donation earmarked for Christmas food parcels, to be sent to Britain.

Flanquette and Terry cloth were ordered for the winter sewing.

For Empire Study, the Regent read a paper entitled "Hong Kong," giving an account of the activities in that city.

The monthly raffle was won by Mrs. J. Stewart.

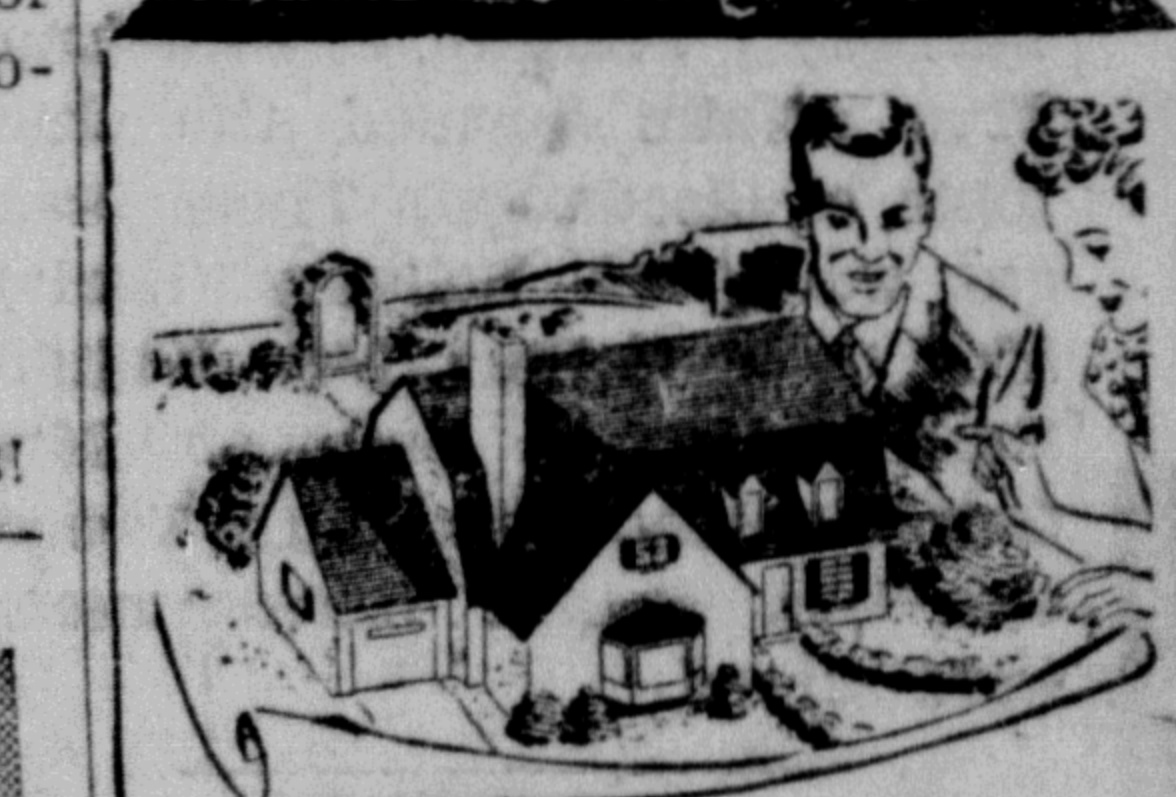

At the close of the meeting dainty refreshments were served. December meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Reade, Summit Apartments.
