FLOOR HOCKEY LEAGUE PLANNED

The ice hockey season may be nearing its end in the frozen parts of the continent, but in Prince Rupert, the hockey season is just about to begin—roller hockey, that is.

Plans for a roller hockey league are announced by Glen Hemons, manager of the Rupert Roller Rink, and a meeting to organize a league was held at the rink on Sunday afternoon.

There are some, but not many, people in the city who have a bit of experience with the game, but these are relatively few, Mr. Hemmons says.

The game is played with the same type of sticks as are used in ice hockey, and the same kind of puck.

Hits who still retain a mathematical chance of overhauling the B. C. Packers. In the other fixtures, Ideal Detergents and Cougars each took the measure of the Islanders and Brownwoods two games to one.

Men's high single and high three went to Ivan Dumas of C.Y.O. with 336 and 755. Ladies' high single was by Eleanor Barber of B. C. Packers with 221 and high three by Bert Vuckovich of Triple XXX with 573. Team high single was by Cougars with 1184 and team high three by Miss or Hits with 3293.

BASKETBALL CHATTER

In what might be their last appearance on a basketball court, almost certainly if they lose, Angus Macphee, Sev Dominato, Jack Lindsay and a few others will tonight face the sickle of old Father Time and a formidable gang of young bloods thrown in to an exhibition tilt to settle a very heated question in sport circles here. All during the season just closing, time and time again the respective efforts of the young and the old have been applauded then questioned, and it's been the fans that have been doing the most of the squabbling. Now they have a chance to see for themselves who is right and who is wrong.

After fifteen years of very good service to the sporting fraternity of Prince Rupert, most of the oldsters are still taking the front seats on all-star teams. This method of choosing the experienced over the youth has been looked upon as being a shortsighted aspect on the furtherance of the sport. Yet the basketball association claims the games must be won and so far they have had to depend on the experience to do the job.

Tonight should and easily could be a different story. With boys like the Holkestad brothers, Joe Davis, Jim Flaten, Reg Lavigne etc., it will take some hustling to keep up with them
