DOING WELL WITH D.P.'S
Canada's Woman Senator Speaks Highly of Organization For Rehabilitation
MONTREAL, Q. — Senator Cairine Wilson, chairman of the Canadian national committee on refugees, expressed "great admiration" for the work of organization for rehabilitation through training and said its displaced persons graduates have been accepted readily abroad — in "some countries hitherto not hospitable to Jewish immigration."
Senator Wilson said: "My own experience with refugees makes me realize the value of re-training. With the opportunity to secure new skills will come the healing of minds and spirits broken through suffering."
