survive this week, it will be business as usual. William Lyon Mackenzie King is about to retire from a premiership that for length of service, broke all records. Canadian affairs of state will go on. When the head of the average household is taken, it might seem, for a moment that all is lost forever. But it does not turn out just that way.

Part of the visual deficiency of older persons is due to the fact that the pupils of a 50-year-old person admit only slightly more than half as much light as those of a 20-year-old.

Modern Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE

Q. Is it considered good form for a girl to accept what is known as a "blind date"?

A. Yes, if she is willing to run the risk of being thrown into the companionship of an undesirable man. However, this would depend upon the friends who arranged the date.

Q. Is it appropriate to have a fruit centerpiece for the table?

A. Yes; it is very effective to have a centerpiece composed of a silver plate heaped with oranges, apples, bananas, peaches, plums or grapes.

Q. What is the correct way to address a woman chairman of a meeting?

A. "Madam Chairman."

HALLOWE'EN AT TERRACE

Fine Costume Party Held Friday Night

TERRACE — Friday night's Halloween Masquerade was one of the most amusing and successful events of the season. There was a good variety of costumes and the judges, who were all fairly recent newcomers to Terrace, had a difficult time choosing the winners. Sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion, the dance was held in the Oddfellows' Hall and was well patronized. Rawley Beecher was master of ceremonies and the music was supplied by the newly organized Terrace dance orchestra. Presiding at the door were Mrs. F. Hall and Mrs. A. Kirkaldy. The judges were Mrs. McGilvery, Mrs. Roberts, Mrs. Murie, and Mr. Keibek.

Prize winners were: Best dressed, Mrs. van Stolk, Eastern lady; Sam Kirkaldy, Mexican.

Most original, Mrs. Michiel, Chinese mandarin; Peter van Stolk, "Carmen Miranda."

Comic, Mrs. B. Baxter, comedienne; Dudley Little, caveman.

Best couple, Mr. and Mrs. S. Howlett, old-fashioned lady and clown.

HOW CAN I ???

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I make mock goose?

A. Parboil a leg of pork and remove the skin. Then rub with butter and sprinkle with salt, pepper, powdered sage, bread crumbs, and minced onion. Roast in a moderate oven. A well-seasoned bread dressing can be baked in the pan with apples.

Q. How can I keep the leather bindings of books in better condition?

A. If the covers of the bookcases are left open once in a while, allowing the air to reach the books, it will help.

Q. How can I remove varnish from furniture?

A. By using ammonia and water in equal quantities.

NEW U.S. AMBASSADOR TO CANADA—Laurence A. Steinhart, left, former U.S. minister to Czechoslovakia, is pictured as he was sworn in at Washington as U.S. ambassador to Canada. Raymond Muir, assistant chief of protocol, administered the oath of office in a ceremony at the state department. Steinhart succeeds Ray Atherton, who recently resigned.

English Bride Honored at Shower Party—Hallowe'en Tea and Sale

The staff of the Skeena restaurant were hostesses on Friday evening at a combined birthday and welcome party for their popular employer, Mrs. Lloyd Sauder, who came out from England in the Spring to marry Mr. Sauder. The table was beautifully decorated and was centred with a large birthday cake made by Mrs. Mary Jones. After the dinner, a table lamp, umbrella and box of chocolates were presented to the surprised guest of honor.

The basement of the United Church was the setting on Saturday afternoon of a Halloween tea which drew a very large patronage. Black and orange was the color scheme of the decorations and Halloween motifs and California poppies decorated the serving table and stalls. Mrs. Frank Gavan, president of the Ladies' Guild opened the proceedings. Serving on the apron stall were Mrs. McKay, Mrs. McLeod, Candy and cake stall, Mrs. Loveless, Mrs. Fred Fisher, plants and card stall, Mrs. McIlroy, Pourers were Mrs. T. Brooks, Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. C. Haugland, Mrs. W. Kirkpatrick. Serviteurs were Mrs. B. Smith, Mrs. Mallett, Mrs. Ross, Mrs. Floyd Frank and Mrs. Gavan. In the kitchen were Mrs. Glen, Mrs. McInnes, Mrs. I. Frank, Mrs. McLaren, Mrs. L. Llewellyn.

The Terrace children were out last week with their shellout tickets and every house in town was canvassed. Friday night at 5 o'clock was the deadline for selling and since then the youngsters have been out collecting. A big party was held at the Civic Centre on Saturday night and the one who sold the most and the one who collected the most were presented with valuable prizes, besides prizes being given for fancy dress costumes and a small gift for each child.
