as favoring some relief for heavy hours which the force is now required to work. In the course of a lengthy discussion on policing generally, the question was raised as to why there should be any move for a return to straight policing. What were Ald. Casey's reasons?

The road situation in Rushbrook Heights was discussed and the view taken that improvements which are planned there should be financed by the city as a whole rather than by the local improvement method. There have been no signatures to a petition for a local improvement bylaw.

The ability of a diesel-engined pumping outfit which was ordered recently by city council to replace the old steam plant at Shawatlans Lake in the city water system was questioned. The Association will communicate with the city council with a view to obtaining full assurance that the plant is capable.

The council will also be asked by the Association to give full and adequate length of time when tenders are being called for by the city.

Further information will be sought from the city as to where new sewers are to be built and details as to charges that the city may propose making for sewer service. The city will also be asked to compel residents adjacent to sewer lines to hook up with same as a means, as far as possible, of eliminating septic tanks which it was felt might constitute a menace to health.

The idea of having a sand pit gully at Ninth Avenue and Conrad Street filled in to provide a playground for Conrad Street filled in to provide a playground for Conrad Street School will be taken up with city council and school board.

A committee was delegated to study the power question in the light of the Northern British Columbia's application for a franchise renewal.
