FIGHT STRIKE TO FINISH-ATTLEE-R.A.F. crews were called by the government to aid these troops unloading supplies from ships in London. Prime Minister Attlee announced the government would fight the strike to a finish, in spite of the fact that it was spreading to other unions who refused to touch shipments handled by the troops. The strike is now over.

THE WEATHER

Synopsis

Two more days of warm sunny weather are in store for southern British, Columbia, However, residents of the northern half of the province will not be quite so fortunate.
