ing, showed good combination and shot quickly. Nisoyk did a good job in goal. P. McMillan and Eli were sturdy defenders who kicked well and placed their goal kicks with judgment. G.
Gano did a lot of work at centre-half with R. Davis and R. Gano making a fast robust halfback line. The forward line was always threatening. Each played his position, passed advantageously, combined cleverly and shot hard and quickly. P. Adams was the pick but all did well. The wing had too much speed for Price and this split trouble for the Motors' defense.

Boulter kept a fine goal and had no change with either scoring shot. Robinson was a strong sturdy defender and John Wilson kicked hard and tackled purposefully. Wellens and Olsen were stars in the halfback line. They needed to be to check the lively opposing forwards. Price had a poor day. He was slow and lacked punch. He muffed a penalty Hornell was fair but could use his head more around goal. He has the height and distributes the ball nicely. Pat Wilson was the best forward, fast and persistent, with a good shot in either foot. Owens added a lot of drive when he came on in the second half. Masse was slow but got one fine drive in. Large did well.
McKay hung on to the ball too long. Letourneau did not get enough chance to show what he could do.

Tail shot behind at the opening of the game when Alyanah attacked and then Motors forced a fruitless corner. Wellens was prominent. Following some fast clever combination by the visiting forwards a pass from Morven was beautifully converted by P.
Adams whose cross drive gave Boulter no chance. Boulter cleared in another attack and at the other end Nisoyk kicked away from Price's free kick. John Wilson stopped Adams. McMillan broke up a Motors attack and R. Davis was effective. Motors goal had a lucky escape when several drives were blocked at clear quarters. Morven shot past and Nisoyk saved from Pat Wilson.

Motors attacked on resuming play and McMillan cleared strongly. Hornell was just high with a header. Olsen shot well and then Hornell was wide.
Motors were doing the pressing but Eli, R. Davis and the Gano brothers were defending fiercely.
Nisoyk saved from Owens and Price, and Pat Wilson was just high. Masse hit the bar with Nisoyk well beaten but the ball came back into play. Hornell was brought down and a penalty awarded Motors. Price made a distressing weak shot at the goalie who saved easily. Then with Price lax in getting back the Alyanah left wing got away and G. Gano beat Boulter to put the visitors two goals up. The Motors drove back and a fine cross from Owens was missed by Pat Wilson. McKay crossed a good centre that was cleared.
Nisoyk did well to catch Pat Wilson's good shot and Hornell went close but the Motors could not find an opening and the Alyanah team won a good game by two clear goals.

Khatada Yields
Fine Angling
Trout are as abundant and as game as ever in Khatada Lake, a party of local anglers which visited there by air at the end of the week, found.
The trip was made by Queen Charlotte Air Lines, leaving here Friday evening.
Two rubber boats were taken in and these facilitated the fishing.
"It was just a case of throw in the line and haul out the fish," said W. L. Woods, one of the members of the party. "It seemed almost two at a time and they were beauties too." The fish ranged from 3½ to 7 pounds in weight.
The party had expected to be
