Imaginary Tea Is Profitable

Duchess of Edinburgh Chapter, Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire, decided Saturday afternoon to cut short on all the fuss and bother of a money-making tea and, instead, made it an imaginary affair. Instead of going to the trouble of preparing for the event and then turning out to patronize, they simply solicited cash donations. The innovation was very successful and the proceeds were quite satisfactory. They will probably do it again, those in charge said. They were Mrs. F. J. Hicks, Mrs. D. H. Stewart, Mrs. Neil McDonald, Mrs. Alex Slater and Mrs. H. M. Wightman.

Manitoba Flood Relief Benefits

Manitoba Flood Relief Fund benefitted from an enjoyable dancing party staged jointly Saturday night in the Canadian Legion ballroom by the Soroptimist and Gyro Clubs. About sixty couples were in attendance and thoroughly enjoyed themselves to the music of Andy McNaughton with vocals by Dyke McMillan. Buffet refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Baker convened the affair with Mrs. P. M. Ray of the Soroptimists and W. F. Stone of the Gyros as well as other members assisting.

Mrs. McKinley Is Mourned by Many

Many old friends gathered at the Grenville Court Chapel of the B. C. Undertakers yesterday afternoon to pay their final tributes of esteem and respect to the memory of the late Mrs. Martha Lorene McKinley, pioneer city woman, who passed away at the end of last week. Rev. Dr. E. A. Wright officiated at the chapel service and Rebekah Lodge committal rites were conducted in ritualistic form at the graveside in Fairview Cemetery under the direction of Mrs. W. J. Lineham, noble grand of Centennial Lodge.

John E. Davey was organist at the chapel service and the hymns were "Breathe on Me, Breath of God" and "How Sweet the Hour of Closing Day." The processional selection was "Saviour, Breathe and Evening Blessing." All these numbers had been favorites of the deceased.

Palbearers, members of the Oddfellows' Lodge and old friends of deceased, were John Bremner, J. L. McIntosh, W. S. Hammond, C. H. Elkins, H. M. Daggett and T. H. Priest.

Mrs. McKinley, who was prominent in the Presbyterian Church and the Rebekah Lodge, was an honorary life member of the Women's Missionary Society of the former and a past district deputy grand president of the latter.

She is survived by a son, J. Garfield McKinley of Oliver, and two daughters, Mrs. Aletta (J.C.) Gilker and Mrs. Beulah (F.G.) Daniels of Prince Rupert as well as nine grandchildren.

FEMALE GEOLOGIST INVADES HE-MAN OIL FIELD OF WEST

—Attractive Diane Loranger, of Manitoba, one of the few women oil geologists, has invaded the he-man oil field of the west. This attractive 27-year-old girl, the first woman to graduate in geology from the University of Manitoba, hopes through the study of fossils "in about five or ten years" to be able to throw some light as to the shoreline of the vast sea which is believed to have covered the prairies. Here Diane is seen in a microscopic study of tiny fossils.

BING DENIES SEPARATION RUMORS

—Known for 20 years as the ideal Hollywood couple, reports now indicate Bing Crosby and his wife are on the verge of separation. The report was made by an attorney for Bing Crosby who said nothing will be settled until the crooner returns from Europe this month. Here Bing is shown with his wife, former actress Dixie Lee. Bing denied the report. Mrs. Crosby refused to comment. They have four sons.

FLAMING BOAT

"Theoretically they are fine," he added.

The pair smiled when they recalled noticing the skipper in the tossing waves; convinced the pair had safely escaped.

"The skipper looked very dignified floating by," Schwan remarked.

All personal effects were lost by the crew. Leaping into the water fully clothed, they were forced to strip. All lost shoes except the skipper. One crew member piled aboard the Sandy S. with only a pair of shorts.

"We were only in the water for a few minutes. We wouldn't have lasted for half an hour," remarked a member.

STILL AFLOAT

As no one could stop the engines, the vessel moved ahead and, as the Sandy S. effected a rescue, the men were in constant fear of an explosion. The rescue craft remained in the vicinity for approximately half an hour. But the flaming Nora Jane still floated.

Half way into this port they were met by the B.C. Police vessel P.M.L. 15 which landed the beaten men at the Home Oil dock at 8 p.m. They were taken aboard the J. S. Foley by Capt. R. Willscroft and later outfitting by a city clothing establishment.

First word of the Nora Jane's plight came with an SOS message picked up at Digby Island wireless station at 3:05 p.m. The captain of the Nora Jane reported a "bad fire" on board. At 3:38 the captain of the Nora Jane again communicated with Digby Island, announcing that the flaming Nora Jane had been abandoned and that he and his men were safe aboard the Sandy S., which he said had effected a "smart rescue."

The Nora Jane was heading for Masset Inlet when the fire occurred in the middle of the Hecate Straits, about half way between Rose Spit and Triple Island.

The Nora Jane, a diesel powered vessel, was built in Vancouver in 1927 and was registered from that port in the name of the Queen Charlotte Towing & Salvage Co. Ltd., 510 West Hastings Street, Vancouver.

Treasures Of Local Talent

The Women's Canadian Club, among talented local citizens, unearthed a real treasure at the June meeting when the first of a series of "Treasure Chest" programs was presented.

Mrs. G. D. Mead, talented pianist, chose for her topic "My Favorite Contemporary Composers" and gave a brief outline of the life and work of nine noted composers, and illustrated their work by playing one or more of their compositions as follows:

Cecile Chaminade — "Serenade"
Sir Edward German — "Pastoral" from "Nell Gwynne Suite," "Shepherd's Dance" from "Henry VIII."

Leopold Godowski — "Auld-wein."
Selim Palmgren — "Berceuse."
Sergei Rachmaninoff — "Romance."

Edward Greig — "Butterflies"

Sockeye Drive High This Year

Unofficial reports are that there is a particularly heavy run of sockeye salmon on the Naas this year and a fair run on the Skeena. No word of boat averages had been received at the Dominion Fisheries office up to yesterday.

Gillnetters started fishing the two rivers at 6 p.m. yesterday, but no report of catches was available at time of writing. The first packers are expected tonight.

Yesterday motorship Sidney, Capt. Osmund Henriksen, was in port from Ketchikan with three carloads of fish for transshipment east. Two of them were frozen and the other fresh.

Making her first call here in months, Alaska Steamship Co.'s big refrigerator ship Lucidor arrived in port at 2 o'clock this afternoon with five carloads of frozen fish from Petersburg, Alaska, for transshipment East over Canadian National Railways. The vessel will sail in continuation of her voyage to Seattle after discharging.

Make Fresher-tasting Jam this Easy, Short-boil Way

Saves 2/3 of your Time. Gives 50% More Jam from your fruit... Sure Results

For sparkling jams with the delicious flavor and color of fresh fruit, try this short-boil method with CERTO.

CERTO is fruit pectin — the natural jelling substance in fruit — extracted and concentrated for better, surer jam and jelly making. These 5 points, typical of CERTO recipes, explain why CERTO is such a boon.

"CERTO" is a trade-mark owned by General Foods, Ltd.

FOLLOW THE RECIPES EXACTLY—

With CERTO you get 78 kitchen-tested recipes because different fruits need different handling. Be sure to follow EXACTLY the simple instructions for the fruit you are using. You get CERTO at your grocer's.

Look for Book of 78 Tested Recipes under the Label

- Point 1 ONE-MINUTE BOIL
CERTO recipes need only a ONE-MINUTE full rolling boil. Right there you save 2/3 of the time needed for old-fashioned long-boiling... not to mention the hot, tiring work!
- Point 2 2 lbs. FULLY RIPE FRUIT
You use RIPE fruit at the peak of luscious taste and color... NOT the under-ripe fruit called for in long-boil recipes. The boil is so short it does not dull the color or spoil the fresh-fruit taste. They stay right in your jam.
- Point 3 3 lbs. OF SUGAR
A pound of jam made with CERTO contains no more sugar than a pound made the old, long-boil way.
- Point 4 4 OZS. OF CERTO
Adding a half bottle (4 ozs.) of CERTO ensures the correct ratio of fruit pectin to fruit and sugar for a perfect set. CERTO removes the uncertain element from jam making... helps all fruits to jell perfectly.
- Point 5 5 lbs. OF JAM
Yes! An average of 5 lbs. of jam instead of about 3 the long-boil way! In the short CERTO boil practically no juice wastes away in steam as it does in long boiling. You average 50% more jam from the same amount of fruit.
