Some folks just can't make up their mind They change it several times a day, But I'm consistent, all the time I grumble.

(By I. Grumble)

Of tonics I have quite a few The weather is a favorite one So rain or shine just listen to My grumble.

At times the rain just gets me down, Gum boots, umbrella. slicker hat, I don them all and as I frown I grumble.

At other times the weather's dry, Water and power both are low, And so to bed I simply hie. And grumble.

Or comes the frost; the ice is fine, But I don't skate, or ski or sleigh; My pipes freeze up and so I whine And grumble.

Down falls the snow; the kids are glad, Snowmen spring up, so big and fat-But snowballs fly, the walking's bad, I grumble.

Now as I walk about the town Bad roads and sidewalks bother me, And as I climb, up hills, then down, I grumble.

And then the city engineer Improves the roads. What's all this mess? The streets are up! Well, have no fear, I'll grumble.

I like the best, and no delays. New roads, new schools, new telephones, But if the city rates they raise-I'll grumble.

You see I am consistent, though-"What's that about the after life?" In heaven above, or . . . well below-I'll grumble.
