James Turnbull Hazelton, Dies

Esteemed Pioneer Resident Passes Away After Long Illness

HAZELTON—James Turnbull, pioneer resident of Hazelton, passed away last Thursday after a prolonged illness. For the greater part of eight years, he had been confined to his bed. He is survived by his wife, Minnie at Hazelton, brother Andrew, sister Jane, and two nephews in Scotland.

James Turnbull was born in Yarrow, Selkirkshire, Scotland, in 1880 and first came to Canada in 1906. He went to the Skeena River Valley district in 1908 and served with the engineers of the Grand Trunk Pacific, constructing the line from Prince Rupert to Hazelton. Mr. Turnbull served with the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry for four and a half years during the first World War and saw service in France, where he was wounded and gassed, with permanent effects to his health.

He returned from overseas service and settled in Hazelton in 1919 and worked first with the provincial forestry service and then with the Department of Public Works as road foreman until his health failed and he was forced to retire in 1942.

Mr. Turnbull was a leader in all community affairs and, even when he was no longer able to take an active part, his advice was always sought and highly respected. During good health he was secretary of the Horticultural Society and was active in the construction of the Horticultural Hall, now the Community Hall; a member of the Hospital Board and secretary of the school board. Mr. Turnbull was a staunch Scotch Presbyterian, and was a member of the Omniaeca Masonic Lodge.

While he was with the Grand Trunk Pacific, Mr. Turnbull was, for a while, mailman and brought the mail through to Hazelton from the coast by dog team. He knew the north country well and was a source of unlimited knowledge of the early days of the Skeena Valley.

Mr. Turnbull was appointed Justice of the Peace in 1936 and Stipendiary Magistrate in 1941. He was secretary of the Liberal Association.

The body was taken to Vancouver by yesterday's train for cremation. The service will be held on Thursday at 3 p.m. at the Mount Pleasant Funeral Parlors in Vancouver.

Palbearers were Chas. Botham, Beverley Hobbs, M. A. Myros, Al Powell, Jack Reynolds, Selwyn Simons.

May Queen Candidates

TERRACE—The May Queen candidates for the celebrations on May 24 are, Audrie Murie, sponsored by the Oddfellows Lodge, Shirley Cole for the Kinsmen, Evelyn Jackson for the Orange Lodge and Shaaron McIlroy for the Legion. The tickets are now out and the candidate selling the most will be crowned queen at the Civic Centre on Victoria Day.

Terrace Church Is Acclaimed

TERRACE—Preceding dedication service for the new Knox United Church on Sunday evening a large banquet was held in the Oddfellows' Hall Saturday evening. Almost 200 people sat down to a supper of cold meats and salads prepared by the ladies of the church and served by the members of the Young People's organization.

Besides the church members and adherents, all who had helped in any way with the building of the church had a seat at the banquet table. It was a happy occasion. Many months of hard work had gone into the re-building of the church, the shell of which was all that remained following fire one Sunday morning early in January, 1949. All the organization within the church had helped in numerous ways to swell the building fund. A fine new church, free of debt now stands on the site of the old one.

J. H. Smith, chairman, welcomed the guests. The Anglican Church, which had been the foster church following the fire, was represented by Mrs. Bert West and R. Corey. The Oddfellows' Lodge, which had donated their hall on many occasions, was represented by W. Bailey and H. King. Dudley Little represented the Village Commissioners. The toast to the King was proposed by F. Fisher.

G. H. Seaman, who, as general convener of the entire dedication proceedings, proposed the toast to the Church of Christ. P. H. Mallett responded and stated his pride in the efforts of the past year. Money and labor had come in freely and, in some cases, sacrificially, the average donation amounting to $27.

Congratulations were extended to the church members by D. G. Little, R. Corey, Mrs. West and H. King who, in humorous vein, wished success to the church and sincerely wished that it would be too small in a very short time.

Messages of congratulations were read from Rev. J. A. McAllister, former pastor of the church and now at Princeton, N. J.; Rev. Joanson of Smithers and Rev. W. P. Bunt, Superintendent of Home Missions. Rev. H. Stewart Forbes, of Ocean Falls and Chairman of the Prince Rupert Presbytery brought greetings from Rev. L. L. Schultzer, Bella Coala, Rev. A. J. Lawton, Presbytery chairman, elect, Rev. L. G. Siebert of Prince Rupert and J. A. Matthews of Hazelton.

As speaker of the evening, Mr. Forbes gave a very interesting and amusing talk on "Bells and Bellfries". J. H. Smith spoke feelingly of the work here accomplished by Rev. and Mrs. Mallett. They had worked with everyone to re-build the church. The largest Sunday school and Young Peoples organization ever seen in Terrace had been built up by them.

A few words of thanks to all those who had helped that day were given by Rev. Mallett—to Mr. Seaman, general convener, Ladies Guild, Y-ettes, Young Peoples, the evening's entertainers, and to almost all the stores in town who had contributed to the banquet, to Mrs. C. C. King and Mrs. F. Gavan for flowers.

During the evening, Mrs. Brant's sang Dutch songs and some Canadian Folk songs. Pianoforte solos were rendered by Flora Melvin, Colleen Sites and Lorna Melvin. Gerald Toop gave a guitar solo. An instrumental quartette with Elliott Head at the piano, P. VanStolk, cello, W. VanHeek, and George Grant, violins, was greatly appreciated.

On Sunday morning, to commemorate the dedication of the church, Mr. George McAdams donated 2 leather bound Bibles to the Sunday school.

When next you buy a cereal make it Grape-Nuts. Economical? Well, a serving is just two tablespoonfuls — costing less than a cent.

SPOT NEWS!
Grape-Nuts Molasses Brittle

- 1 cup sugar
- 1/2 cup molasses
- 1/2 cup water
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1 tablespoon butter
- 1 cup Grape-Nuts

Combine sugar, molasses, water, and salt, in saucepan. Place over low heat and stir constantly until sugar is dissolved. Cook until a small amount of syrup becomes brittle in cold water (170°F.) stirring occasionally. Add butter and Grape-Nuts, stirring as little as possible. Pour onto greased platter. Cool slightly. Stretch thin. Allow to harden. Break into small pieces. Makes 1 pound.
