Rupert Girl Is Charming Bride

Miss Mollie Frew and Eric Tycho United at Church Ceremony

Styles of Spring Are Intriguing

Spring Ascendant As Wallace's and Brownwoods Stage Display For Rebekah Lodge

One of the season's prettiest weddings was solemnized on Thursday evening in First Presbyterian Church when Miss Mary Greer (Mollie) Frew became the bride of Eric H. Tycho. Rev. Allan M. McColl conducted the service which was performed before the altar bedecked for the occasion with baskets of spring flowers.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, by whom she was given in marriage, to the strains of the wedding march. She was a picture of loveliness in a wedding ensemble of delicate shell pink. Instead of the customary white wedding gown the bride chose shell pink net over dainty lace of the same color and, from the slender waistline, the dress reached almost to the floor in billowy fullness. Her veil, the same shade of pink, was attached to the hair in a petalled halo. She carried a shower bouquet of snapdragons, lily-of-the-valley and heather.

Mrs. N. I. Tycho, sister-in-law of the groom, was a charming matron of honor in a gown of white sheer with pink velvet flower at waistline and matching flowers in the hair. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations and blue iris.

Norman I. Tycho, brother of the groom, was groomsmen while Robert G. Irvine and Jack Gowdie performed the duties of ushers.

During the signing of the register Miss Joanne Langridge charmed the guests as she sang
