BASEBALL— League Race Tightens Up

Merchants Win 12 to 5 Over Savoy
Merchants are still in the cellar yet only one full game from first place in the city baseball league as a result of their 12 to 5 win on Sunday over Savoy.
The game started out a real dogfight with the lead changing hands four times in as many innings. Thereafter, the Savoy outfit fell apart and it seemed impossible for them to do anything right. Alex Bill had a bad day as he evened up for his season's above-average fielding in one game.
On a hot afternoon, ideal weather for pitching records to be hung up, the Merchants demonstrated their authority with the hickory as they raked three Savoy pitchers for thirteen hits. Everyone hit but Abel and he drove four mighty flies to the outfield. Merchants used two pitchers. Maundrell tired after striking out four and allowing five hits in three innings, then Rosedale went on to allow only two safeties in six innings.
Merchants opened the scoring in the first frame with two out when Davis singled and Lambie doubled to drive him home. Lindsay took matters into his hands in his first time at bat in the second inning when he hit a home run into centre field to tie the score. Scherk walked, stole around to third base then

It is believed to be the first time an FM radio-phone has been used in covering an important news event. (C. P. Photo)

Big Show Is Opening

A Shrine Band parade will mark the opening tonight of Henry Meyerhoff's Crescent Shows which is starting a ten day stand on First Avenue to the rear of the Prince Rupert Hotel. The show is being staged under the auspices of the Prince Rupert Shrine Club which is recommending the many features that are being offered, particularly for the children but appealing also to those of all ages.
Tomorrow night special visitors at the show will be the Ah-mes Shrine party from California, returning south on the steamer Chilcotin after an Alaskan cruise. Shrine Band, Job's Daughters' Drill team will meet the visitors at the wharf and there will be a parade to the carnival.
Two comfortably fed looking horses tied to the fence and crates of other horses are to be seen right here in Prince Rupert where for years horses have been at a premium. But horses in crates! Actually they are part of the equipment for the Crescent Shows. The crates contain hobby horses.
The site of the show had a miscellaneous and heterogeneous disarray of all kinds of equipment this forenoon with more supplies being disgorged from the show's own trucks and even more by local trucks unloading from the train. Within a short time order was being brought out of the disarray. In one spot two heavy cross timbers at right angles were laid down. With a simple but effective tripod and a block and tackle the heavy centrepiece was erected and securely fixed with heavy steel supports. Then using a level the operator adjusted the centrepiece so that it was perfectly erect and used shims to get the accurate alignment. This was the centre post for the hobby horses. Similar jobs were being done with other pieces of property.
Aloft on a telephone pole employees of the Power Co. were connecting the cables necessary to supply current for power and light for the shows. Other crates contained seats for the airplane and other action features of the shows.
An all around were the fore-

MANY WITNESS BOWLING PLAY

The warm weather attracted a number of members to the C.N.R.A. Bowling greens Sunday afternoon with the semi-finals of the doubles competition being played.
The play of Fred Hardy and Lance Potterson was too much for Bill Terry and Charlie Youngman and the first two won 15 to 9. The battle of Barton and Frew against Duncan and Forbes was a topsy-turvy affair. Duncan and Forbes had a lead of six after five ends but the match was tied at the seventh. From then on it was anybody's game but Barton and Frew came out winners by 13 to 11.
The final is scheduled for this evening. In a friendly "hat" game the rink of Rod Smith, Bill Reid, Bill Rance and Bert Morgan was outclassed by a rink made up of Vic Whiting, Jock Campbell, Jimmy Irvine and Neil Cameron. Final score was 18 to 9 for Morgan's aggregation.

Sport Shots

Gus Krause did a great job in goal in Friday night's football game. Dawes tried hard but the defence was sounder with Sunberg and Eby at back. They were very sure. Yelland was better when he took his usual place at centre half. Alexander and Bremner both did well at right half. Greer was clever but found difficulty in controlling the ball. The forwards were good. Armstrong and Murray were too good for James and their inter-passing and constructive play were fine to see. Smith at centre played a bustling, hard-driving game that paid off with three goals. Bowman combined well with Baxter who is always a fast and clever threat.

Morgan was well beaten by the scoring shots, though he seemed at fault prior to one goal. Dunbar was sound and made good runs to set up his forwards but without results. Ferguson was a tough defender. The half-back line was outplayed in the second half. Veitch being missed. Darrow Gomez did well and got two goals. Mazzone was not at home in his new position and James has not regained his speed and drive after his illness. Ward was the most dangerous forward, his corner kicks and centres being models of accuracy. Parkhouse was always driving hard. Vuckovich got a goal and never gave up dropping back at times to help his defence. Pavlikis went close but his solo efforts toward the end did his forward line no good. Billy Gomez was very effective.

SOCCER SHORTS

This evening's football game in the first round of the Stuart Shield brings together the Heavy Battery and the Canadian Legion in what should prove to be an all-out match. Last Friday's game when the Battery scored three goals, but the Legion sandwiched in no fewer than five goals between the Battery's second and third goals, was a crowd pleaser. There were at least three aspects that were notable.
One was that the Battery got two early goals after having all the better of the exchanges. Then the Legion began to click and they racked up five goals without reply. The Battery got see!
