SHIPS and WATERFRONT

The freighter Robert Eugene, which went aground some days ago at Addenbrook Island in Queen Charlotte Sound, had a hundred ton cargo of general merchandise for delivery in Alaska. She is owned by M. B. Dahl & Sons, Inc., of Juneau. Distress calls being promptly picked up, she was soon given aid. The batteries being almost under water, the radio could be made use of, only for a short time. The Robert Eugene has a crew of five.

Among those aboard the ss. Prince George, due in port tonight enroute to Vancouver after what may be her final season's voyage to Alaska, are several persons of prominence. These include Roy Davis, president of the Atlas Steel Co. of Welland, Ontario; F. M. Connell, a mining executive of Toronto; and Major Gregg Veagant, a Kansas City architect.

A fishing vessel, the Santra Doe of Juneau, was recently in Prince Rupert having come here for survey and repair after having experienced some damage by grounding at DeLong Island, about thirty miles from Ketchikan.

Dogs, Cats- One Turtle

Harry Knutson's Great Dane, Danny, walked off with first honors in the children's pet show at the Civic Centre carnival last night. Harry feeds the 150 pound animal from a wash tub. The dog is only nine months old.

Judge for the event was Harry Todd of the Todd and Pluto show. He was well pleased with the turn-out of pets with their youthful masters and made both boys and girls and their four-legged friends feel at home as soon as they came onto the stage. With his ready wit he kept the show moving at a fast clip throughout.

In addition there were four prizes for performing dogs. They were large pictures presented by Mr. Todd. All contestants received a small prize and a small picture, from Mr. Todd. There were 40 entrants.

Dogs, cats and even one turtle were among the entrants and considerable amusement developed as they were induced or cajoled to do their tricks. A lot appeared to be suffering from stage fright. It was a wide variety of canines and felines from some good looking thoroughbreds to nondescript mongrels, each one dear, however, to his or her young owner's heart.

C.C.F. Urges Quick Action

OTTAWA — M. J. Coldwell, C.C.F. leader, Wednesday urged the government to exhaust every means of ending the railway tie-up without waiting for a session of Parliament. He suggested that the minimum demands of the unions and the maximum concessions of the railways be ascertained and, if necessary, there be a government subsidy for a tentative arrangement pending final settlement.
