There were a few raised eyebrows in the city council chamber last Monday night when Alderman George Casey offered praises to Colonel George Drew as a champion of greater autonomy for local governments and cited him as possibly the next Prime Minister of Canada.

The elevated eyebrows weren't directed at Colonel Drew; his position is well-known. The wonderment arose because Alderman Casey, who has long been considered a liberal among Liberals, should choose the head of the Conservative party as the target for his praise.

FROM CELLAR TO ATTIC....

There's a proper light or lamp for every spot in the house

A torchere lamp provides a very attractive glow in a dark hallway or a dull corner of a room... but not to read by! Floor or table lamps placed to give a proper reading light to several people are both economical and cheerful. Make sure that you have plenty of wall outlets... use bulbs that provide a comfortable working light—neither too dull nor too glaring... use light-colour shades... dust lamps and bulbs frequently. Look around your home: is there adequate light for the children's study? For Mother's sewing, kitchen and laundry work? For your own reading requirements in the living room or in bed?

If you have a secret ambition to be the chief magistrate of Prince Rupert and believe color systems have any bearing on human destinies, tickle fate's fancy by making sure black is the color in front of your 'phone number.

But if you covet only an alderman's chair tie your star to a green number. Five of the present aldermen have green before their 'phone numbers. If you happen to have Irish blood in your veins, so much the better. The "green" aldermen are George Casey, T. B. Black, J. R. Morin, George Rudderham and Robert McKay.

Blue, being a sort of second cousin to green, may account for Alderman A. S. Nickerson and W. F. Stone being in the civic spotlight with a blue number. The only red 'phone number on the city council is Alderman Arthur Brooksbank. Mayor Nora Arnold has the only black number.

Of course the city council color system may resemble a rainbow after the next civic election and completely explode this theory that green is the favorite color of destiny when it comes to the business of selecting the city fathers.

Charles Youngman returned this morning on the Prince George from a trip to Vancouver.

In the city council room or at least they were the subject of discussion some weeks ago but, when it comes to nuisance noises, dogs haven't much on horn blasting taxis.

Some may remember—way back—when it was customary for drivers to make a personal appearance at the door of the residence from which the call originated. That custom may never come back but it certainly was better than the one now in vogue. The blare of the horn in the middle of the night may not be too disturbing to healthy adults but to those who are ill or to children, the sound is startling and irritating.

Almond Honey Toast

It's a good idea to always keep a few quickies in mind so when unexpected callers arrive you can entertain them with a cup of carefully steeped tea and something to eat with it. "Almond Honey Toast" is a favorite because it tastes so good and is so easy to do. Grind the almonds for the topping so it will spread easily.

1/2 cup honey
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 cup ground roasted unblanched almonds
Toast strips

Cream together honey, butter and spice. Add almonds and stir until well blended. Spread on strips of toast. Place under broiler to heat. Serve immediately.
