

REBEKAH HEAD VISITS CITY

Mrs. C. Webb of Chilliwack, president of the Rebekah Assembly of British Columbia, paid an official visit to Centennial Rebekah Lodge Wednesday evening. Miss Gillander of Chilliwack, who is accompanying Mrs. Webb on her northern trip, was a guest at the meeting which also was honored by a number of visitors from the newly instituted lodge of Terrace.

At a banquet held in the Broadway Cafe Thursday night Mrs. Webb was the guest of honor. Following the banquet the guests enjoyed an evening of bridge, before Mrs. Webb and Miss Gillander left on the Prince Rupert for the south.

Previous to arriving in Prince Rupert they visited Prince George, Smithers and Terrace. While in the city they were the guests of Mrs. J. W. McKinley.

Current they turned south and re-entered the United States. They visited Yellowstone Park and crossed into British Columbia at Osoyoos, travelling north up the Okanagan Valley and into the Cariboo.

Speaking of the B. C. interior roads Mr. Becker said he had never seen them in better condition and except for the curves a speed of 50 m.p.h. was easily maintained.

On the return trip the Beckers visited Moose Jaw, Regina and Swift Current. From Swift

TRY, TRY AGAIN—Ben Carlin, 37, of New York, and his 32-year-old wife, failed for the second time when they set out from Halifax to cross the Atlantic to the Azores aboard this sea-going jeep. It was intended to be the first lap of a land-sea journey around the world. Mr. and Mrs. Carlin returned to Halifax after three days at sea when their auxiliary gas tank went adrift. One of the tanks can be seen in this photo behind the amphibious vehicle. They plan to try again. (C. P. Photo)

RETURN FROM MIDWEST TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Becker, accompanied by their son Billy, and daughter, Dorothy, returned to the city Wednesday night from a 4-week motor trip that took them as far east as Milwaukee, Wisconsin, where they attended the State Fair. Most of their time in the east was spent at Madison, Wisconsin where they visited Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Moore, the parents of Mrs. Becker.

On the return trip the Beckers visited Moose Jaw, Regina and Swift Current. From Swift

IT'S STRAIGHT NOW—This informal family scene took place at Calgary airport last week as Prime Minister St. Laurent waited for local Liberals who had arranged a reception for him. A rough air trip resulted in his hat being tilted so Mrs. Madeleine O'Donnell, his daughter, sets it at the proper angle. (C. P. Photo)

RIDGEWOOD WINS ST. LEGER STAKE

DONCASTER, Yorkshire—Ridgewood, ridden by Michael Berry, today won the St. Leger stakes. Dust Devil was second and American-bred Lone Eagle, owned by William Woodward, millionaire United States banker, was third.

Johnny Longdon, North America's leading jockey, finished last aboard Chatelain, a rank outsider.

CONFERENCE NEARS END

NEW YORK—On the long term problem of boosting Britain's sales to the United States to a point where Britain can become self-sufficient there is considerable uncertainty at the three-power talks.

It is possible the conference may end next week without decisive agreement on specific steps to be taken in this field.

British delegates proposed a loan for $600,000,000 from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. This would not need Congressional approval.
