TERRACE - RUPERT ONLY BAD ROAD

Expressing delight with the scenic beauty of the Skeena River Highway, particularly the section between Terrace and Prince Rupert, but finding it hard to understand why such deep "pot holes" should be allowed to remain in the road, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bushman of Berkeley, California, were motor tourists visiting the city at the week-end. Mr. Bushman, who shipped his car north on the steamer Prince George Sunday morning, will take to the road again at Haines and head from there to Fairbanks and other central Alaska points, returning south by way of the Alaska Highway. From Terrace to Prince Rupert was the only bad stretch of the whole road, Mr. Bushman said. Mr. Bushman is an electrical contractor of Berkeley. It was not their first motor trip to this part of the country. Ten years ago he and Mrs. Bushman came as far as Hazelton in the same car which they had here on this trip.

Modern Etiquette

Q. When a ball is lost on the golf links, who decides when to signal following sets of players to go on through?

A. Any player in your set who observes that others have come up behind and are waiting may signal them through. The others in your set should refrain from play until they have passed through and are out of reach.

Q. Does an invitation to a christening require a call at the home later?

A. Not necessarily, although a friendly call is never out of place.

Q. Is it ever proper to wear a hat with an evening dress?

A. No, never.

MOTOR HOLIDAY ON ANNIVERSARY

Having just completed twenty-five years in the professional photography business in Montrose, Colorado, Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Walker were among week-end motor tourists in Prince Rupert. In the course of a leisurely tour which they expect will occupy two or three months, they arrived here by way of the Skeena River, over the beauties of which they were enthusiastic, and shipped their car Sunday on the Prince George to Haines whence they will head for central Alaska and thence return southward over the Alaska Highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker are taking copious pictures on their trip and did not overlook Prince Rupert. They found the terrain and the flora and fauna of this district similar to that of high eastern Colorado which is their home country.

FINAL RITES FOR VICTOR PRESTON
