Women's Institute Having Crisis—
New Rector Coming For Anglican Church

An appeal is being made to all interested in keeping alive the Women's Institute in Terrace to attend the next meeting when a social will be held following the routine business meeting. The members have not been turning out at the regular monthly meetings as hoped for and, for a time it has been felt among the most active members that the activities of the other organizations in town are gaining preference in the community with the Institute coming out second best. Thursday night's meeting at the home of Mrs. W. Robinson was not well attended. Mrs. Harvey Phillip presided. Wool which was left over from articles knitted for overseas parcels was put up for sale and purchased by the members. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Mrs. McNabb entertaining. Mrs. Maxted, senior, has arrived from Ontario to make her home with her son Jim, who so recently lost his wife.

W. Burke and Miss Valerie Booth left on Tuesday's train for Vancouver. Mr. Burke's position on the local teaching staff has been filled by Donald Cochrane of Vancouver who arrived on Thursday morning's train to teach at the High School. Mrs. Dudley Little is relieving temporarily for Miss Booth who is expected back as soon as her health is improved.

P. Murie sr., and Ronald Hartnell left on Sunday morning on a motor trip to the southern part of the province. They expect to be away about two weeks.

Arthur Murray sailed yesterday afternoon on the Princess Louise for a business trip to Vancouver.

Fred Nash, accompanied by R. Walker and Edgar Hamlin left on Tuesday morning's train for Hazelton and Vanderhoof on survey work.

St. Matthews W. A. met at the home of Mrs. R. Corlett last week, the meeting having been postponed for a week due to the death of the vice president, Mrs. Edna Maxted, who was to have been the hostess at her home this month. Two minutes silence was observed in her memory. In view of the fact that a minister, Rev. James Russel of St. Barnabas Church, New Westminster, is expected here in the New Year, the W.A. will undertake to have the rectory cleaned and prepared for the coming of him and his wife. Some effort is to be made to have double doors made for the vestry by the addition of another door. General regret was expressed by the members at the recent accident of Mrs. Gibson, president of the Diocesan W.A., who was expected in Terrace on Tuesday on her return from the Dominion Annual in St. John, but who was forced to cancel her visit due to breaking her ankle in Vanderhoof. Refreshments were served by the hostess following the close of the business session. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. de Kergommeaux with
