PIANO WORK AT FESTIVAL
that Mozartian music derives its name from the fact that Mozart's music is characterized by its gracefulness. The opening of this composition must be graceful. Several of the players began too heavily. Lorna Melvin made a mark of 85 by her lovely approach, and her variety in tone and color. She was warned though against too much pedalling. Other marks were: Elizabeth Martin 80, Rose Marie Tetrault 79, Anita Brue 79, Colleen Sites 79, and Gail MacRae 79.
In Class 23 which was open for "Norwegian Bridal Procession" by Greig, Adjudicator Bligh complimented all four girls on their excellent performances. Virility and strength as well as imagination were needed to portray this beautiful composition and the girls proved themselves equal to their task.
Their attention to detail, gram chairman.

"I'm in business for myself"
Allan McDonald,
Owner of Morva Service
Chevron Gas Station,
Chilliwack, B.C.
"I guess Morva Service, outside of Chilliwack, was just about the smallest gas station in B.C. back in 1936. On a 12 ft. x 10 ft. lot I had a general store and one hand pump. No electricity—no water. I sold about 25 gallons of gasoline a month, and my savings were nickels and dimes put aside in a special tin box. It took time, but those savings grew until I had enough to finance a new, larger Morva Service. Hard work? Yes, but I've had time for outside interests, too. I'm manager of the cup-winning Morva Archery team. I've made lots of good friends, and with those good friends, good products and good luck, I've built the old Morva Service into a business I'm proud to own."

This four-room bungalow, designed by Harold C. Beckett, with full basement and attached garage is an ideal home for a small family. Constructed of brick veneer, it has gables of horizontal wood siding which give an interesting contrast to the elevation. Although the kitchen is small, it is compact and leaves adequate space for a breakfast nook. For estimating purposes the floor area is 1,700 square feet. (Working drawings may be obtained from any office of Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation at minimum cost).

Objective of Red Cross Is Exceeded

Citizens of British Columbia have over-subscribed the objective of $500,000 in the 1949 Red Cross appeal by more than $45,000, it is announced by Hon. E. W. Hamber, drive chairman for this province. In this district Burns Lake, McBride, New Hazelton, Ocean Falls, Prince George and Vanderhoof exceeded their quotas by substantial amounts.

sustained rhythms and expressive contrasts gave a performance that was a delight to all who listened. Once again Mr. Bligh warned against too much pedal. He stressed the value of contrasts and color in the playing of a composition. He called attention to the extraordinarily fine playing of Flora Melvin, noting the various points that made it so. The following marks were awarded: Flora Melvin 86, Lorna Melvin 84, Peggy Laird 83 and Colleen Sites 83.
Mrs. F. E. Anfield was program chairman.

PSYCHIATRIC DRAMA HERE

"Snake Pit" Is Current Offering at Capitol Theatre
A completely unvarnished drama with its principal setting in an overcrowded American mental institution, "Snake Pit," first half of the week offering at the Capitol Theatre here, presents a powerful, if sordid story, with forceful realism. Possibly conditions may exist in some American asylums such as those that are pictured in this film but, fortunately, they do not exist in British Columbia.
Olivia DeHavilland gives a notable performance as Virginia Cunningham, the story's heroine. It is a role such as Miss DeHavilland—or possibly any other actress for that matter—has essayed and, for sheer dramatic depth, is an actor's dream. Leo Genn, and radio comedian, the role of the psychiatrist who supports the role of the patient's husband. Celeste Holm, who can head the list of seen in the picture, Craig, Lief, and Bondi, Lee, and well known Hollywood actors.
Aage Hansen, Denmark, after a visit here with daughter-in-law, Louise for Vancouver, New York where he May 30 on the way to his return to Old Country. He is accompanied as far as his son.
