PLANE WRECK—A family of seven, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Siple and their five children, were killed Sunday when their aircraft took fire and crashed near Maxville, Ont., half way between Ottawa and Montreal. Siple, a ferry command pilot during the war, was flying his family home after a visit to relatives in western Ontario. Here William Stewart and his two sons, on whose farm the plane crashed, survey the twisted remains of the plane. (CP Photo)

Twice in a week it happened—people with foolproof systems found themselves over a barrel in Britain. Case No. 1 concerned Mrs. Doris Morley, 40-year old spiritualist who lost £4,000 ($16,000) gambling at dog tracks but left court insisting she was "bound to win." Case No. 2 concerned company director James Hodgson, whose plan to beat the football pools brought little but grief. One week the syndicate he formed collected 10 shillings ($2) for an outlay of £145, 16 s. Hodgson, 38, launched the syndicate with an advertisement promising "prospects of exceptionally large profit." Twenty-one persons joined and split into three groups, each investing £48 12s. in a 12-match pool.

Because twice in five weeks on the average there are no tied games the syndicate was drawn up in three groups. But draws have been frequent this season. On three Saturdays in October, one in December and one in January, no dividends were received. Highest return was on November 20—on second dividend of £12 and 15 thirds of £1. There have been no first dividends. Says Hodgson with a sigh: "One of two people are getting discouraged and dropping out. They have lost a little more than half the money they have invested."

YOUNGMAN IS WINNER

Takes Legion Tournament By One Point Win Over Hurst

At the Canadian Legion Hall yesterday afternoon, before a large and keenly interested audience of Legion members, Charlie Youngman won the third handicap English billiards tournament by defeating A. M. Hurst, who had just won an easy victory in the semi-finals, by a margin of one point in an extraordinarily thrilling finish.

Youngman, who was receiving a total of 30 points from his opponent Hurst (playing minus 10) in the final match of 200 points, held his lead until shortly after the century mark had been reached, the score then being Youngman 104, Hurst 79. Hurst then slowly forged ahead, taking the lead for the first time at 131 with Youngman's score standing at 125. Youngman reached his 150 with his opponent 6 points behind and, from then on, scored consistently and had a 25-point lead over his adversary when within 5 points of his goal.

Hurst then made a supreme effort and, with a faultless break of 26, again took the lead, the score reading Hurst 196, Youngman 195. Youngman failed to score on his next visit to the table. Hurst followed with an in-off the red which left him a difficult cannon in the mouth of the top left-hand pocket which was spoiled by a kiss, score 199-195. Youngman pocketed his opponent to get into position to pocket the red and end the game, but this ball, which had considerable spin on it, hit the corner of the top right-hand pocket and rolled close to the cushion towards the right centre pocket where it looked as if it was going to stop and provide an easy winning stroke for Hurst. Suddenly it curved into the pocket much to the surprise and amusement of Youngman and all present.

It was a hard-fought game, and provided the spectators with an exhibition of good billiards, the result of the match being in doubt until the last stroke had been played. Youngman's best break was a well-played 18, Jack Judge acted as referee and W. L. Gordon as marker.

Just prior to this match Hurst won his game in the semi-finals by easily defeating Fred Hardy 150-89. Hurst, who was playing minus 10, was giving his opponent 50 points in this 150-point match, and settled down to play immediately, scoring 67 points before Hardy, who failed to show the form that he had displayed in his three former matches, had scored a point. Hurst, with breaks of 20, 21 and 23, passed his century (114) fifty points ahead of his opponent and from then on, in spite of a slight improvement in Hardy's play, the result was never in doubt. Immediately after this game Hurst accepted the challenge of Youngman to play the final match of the tournament.

Prizes won by the winner and "runner-up" will be presented at an early date. Hurst will also take the prize for the highest break during the tournament which was won by Neil Cameron with a run of 47.

Entry lists for the next handicap English billiards tournament will be posted in the Legion Club Rooms tonight.

Whist—ladies first, Mrs. Frank Ellison; men's first, N. Powell; consolation, G. Mostad.

RANKS WITH GREAT LAKES

Great Bear Lake in the Northwest Territories is larger than Lake Erie by 1,550 square miles and larger than Lake Ontario by 3,950 square miles.

It's so different today

In olden times they started the day with a juicy steak and a tankard of foaming ale! Today the ace-high breakfast dish is Post's Grape-Nuts Flakes... ready-to-eat; easy-to-digest... made not from one but TWO grains—sun-ripened wheat and malted barley.

That famous Grape-Nuts flavor in the form of delicious, honey-golden flakes is scrumptious. Post's Grape-Nuts Flakes are nourishing, too... provide useful quantities of carbohydrates and proteins for energy and muscle; phosphorus for teeth, bones; iron for the blood. So tasty—so good—so convenient. Ask your grocer.
