Moose Women Xmas Plans

Donations and gifts to be sent to various points comprised business taken up by the Women of the Moose at a meeting Wednesday night.

A donation will be made in aid of a dinner to be held for "Over 70" folks in Prince Rupert prior to the Christmas holidays.

A collection was taken up and will be sent to the Vancouver Sun March of Dimes campaign.

Members brought Christmas cards containing handkerchiefs. These will be mailed to Moosehaven, a Moose sponsored home for the aged at Orangeville, Florida.

Members balloted for five new members who will be initiated at the Moose Christmas party December 21.

Regular Cards, Catholic Hall, January 5.

AT BALAGNO FLORISTS—Place your Christmas order for flowers NOW! Phone us: Green 787—or come in—BUT DON'T DELAY!

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon J. Thompson and little daughter, Donna, arrived in the city on last night's train from Hanna, Alberta. Mr. Thompson is here to join the typographical staff of the Daily News.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. McBride, George Hills, George Viereck and Bernhoff Peterson, who have been in Burns Lake attending a conference of co-operative managers, returned to the city from the interior on last night's train.

Alexander Esler, eight-year old organist and soloist, who was featured in a recital at the United Church Wednesday and Thursday, returned to Vancouver on the Prince George last night accompanied by Mrs. Jack Harrod and her husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Frizzell are arriving in the city next week from Chicago to spend the Christmas and New Year holiday season with Mr. Frizzell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Frizzell, who are moving into their new home on First Avenue.

Mrs. Oscar Steinberg, wife of the late Oscar Steinberg, who was killed in an automobile accident near Nanaimo last week, and Mrs. A. McIver, his step-mother, sailed last night on the Prince George for Vancouver.
