

Legion Billiard Tourney Is On

The opening round of the first winter English billiard tournament at the Canadian Legion Hall has proceeded steadily throughout the present week and last night nine out of the first sixteen matches had been played.

Neil Cameron (15 points or no count) defeated A. W. Bird (plus 40) by a score of 150 to 126. A nice break of 36 by Cameron placed him at the top of the list for the highest break.

Two former handicap winners were matched in the game between J. Campbell and Bruce Simundson, the former playing minus 30 to his opponents plus 10. Campbell made a well played break of 26 during the match which he won with a score of 150 to 122.

W. A. Osborne (plus 30) scored a win over Lionel Holtby (plus 35) by 27 points and Mike Fudger (plus 20) was victor over Fred Hardy to whom he conceded 15 points, by 150 to 113.

J. Lawrie (plus 20) won a hard fought game over W. Brett (plus 30) by a margin of 18 points, and W. Strachan (plus 30) finished off an exciting match which was anybody's game to the end, by the narrow margin of 9 points.

Bill Rance, with a handicap of plus 35, will be watched by the handicappers for the next tournament as, with a break of 23, he defeated Vic Duncan (plus 25) with a 150 to 101 score.

Rod Smith, playing scratch, had a hard game with J. A. Teng to whom he conceded 35 points, finally running off 13 points ahead of his opponent.

The closest match so far played resulted in a win for Wilfred Goddard (plus 15) over J. Bremner (plus 30) by the narrow margin of 4 points.

Sport Shots

The maritimes are becoming a happy hunting ground for fellows who used to be in big-time hockey. In fact, one almost has to be a former National Hockey League big-wig to get a coaching job.

In Halifax, Marty Barry is assistant coach of St. Mary's of the Maritime Senior Hockey League. Harvey (Busher) Jackson has taken over Moncton Hawks of the same circuit. Up in the Cape Breton circuit, Sweeney Schriener is handling North Sydney Victorias and Murph Chamberlain has his Sydney Millionaires at the top of the league.

Jackson is the latest arrival down east. It may not be a happy hunting ground—Hawks are a poor third in the four-team M.S.H.L.—but at least it is new ground. Dave (Moncton
