ARCHDEACON AT UNITED CHURCH

The Evening Musical Service Greatly Appreciated

In the absence of Rev. R. A. Wilson, who is attending meetings of the General Council of the United Church of Canada at Vancouver, Archdeacon E. Hodson of Seal Cove conducted the morning service at First United Church yesterday.

Speaking from the text "My presence shall go with thee," Mr. Hodson referred to the many cases of loneliness in different situations in life when human companionship is not enough. But in all of these cases the promise of God is fulfilled and His presence is sufficient for everyone.

The Junior Choir sang the anthem "Far Round the World" very effectively.

In the evening there was a musical service with the Junior and Senior Choirs combining in leading the singing of hymns. A special number by the Junior Choir was "Around the Throne of God." The Senior Choir sang "Incline Thine Ear," with Dr. R. G. Large as soloist, and both choirs joined in a spirited rendering of W. H. Jude's setting of "Onward, Christian Soldiers." Rowland Miles sang effectively "So Near to God am I." An instrumental duet, with Mrs. L. Dakin at the organ and H. Plum at the piano, provided an unusually attractive number. J. S.
