Ray Reflects and Reminisces

Hon. Mr. Mayhew, Minister of Fisheries, says he hopes to soon see ratified a treaty whereby, among other things, there will be stimulation of fish sales. In other words, he means "Eat More Fish." But be sure and have it expertly cooked and attractively served!

Some folks would rather remain single while others would rather knot.

Falling a sheer drop of 250 feet and living to tell about it, Robert Swartman, an Ottawa steeplejack, says he's the luckiest man alive. He was at work on the summit of the west block tower of the Parliament Buildings when something slipped and down he went. Three seconds later he landed on a snowbank—the only one in that immediate neighborhood. Anyone with all his luck should not be doing a job on the outside of Parliament. He's needed inside to give the power of his presence to at least one of the parties.

Married In Vancouver

A wedding of much local interest was solemnized in Vancouver Saturday evening, when Helen Marie Marchildon, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Wain of this city, became the bride of Captain John Fielden Denning, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. W.
E. Denning, also of this city.

In the absence of her parents, the bride was given in marriage by A. J. Squire, a well known former Prince Rupert resident.

The bride's wedding costume was fashioned from rich blue silk velvet, styled with long Dolman sleeves and enhanced by a billowy blue lace skirt. She wore a large picture hat of the same blue lace as her skirt, over silver lame, silver slippers and tiny wrist length silver mitts. She carried a dainty white prayer book, gift of the groom, topped by a small delicate white orchid bouquet.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Josephine Sikes, well known and popular former city girl, wore a modish pale rose gown with Dolman sleeves and draped back, with a small veiled hat and gloves to match. Her pretty crescent shaped bouquet was fashioned from pink carnations, iris and hyacinth.

The groom's boutonniere consisted of a tiny pale mauve orchid, a near match to the bride's Groomsman was Capt. Charles Stewart, formerly employed by the Department of Fisheries. He is captain of the patrol vessel Sooke Post.

Ushers were Robert Wormald and Kenneth Floyd of Vancouver.
The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Telfer in West Point Grey United Church.

Following the ceremony a reception for about 40 friends was held in the Alhambra Supper Club on Cornwall Street.

Guests were received by Mrs. A.
J. Squires who wore a fashionable forest green gown and a corsage of gardenias and hyacinth.

A toast to the bride was proposed by A. J. Squire, who has known the bride since childhood, and was responded to by the groom.

Following their marriage, Mr.
ver for a motor trip to California.
They will make their home in Prince Rupert where the groom is employed by the Department of Fisheries.

BABY'S UPSET STOMACH QUICKLY CORRECTED

BABY'S little "Tummy" is often easily upset. It is easily righted again, too, if you know just how to do it. Let Mrs. M. S.
Always, of London, Ont., tell you: "Baby's Own Tablets are a great help at the first sign of upset stomach, during teething time or when a cold is coming on. They work quickly yet gently to carry away poisons and promote restful comfort." And Mrs. W. R. Sharp says: "I nursed my baby shortly after being alarmed over a motor accident and her stomach became quite upset. I gave her Baby's Own Tablets and she soon stopped crying—and quieted down."
Totally effective for teething troubles, constipation, simple fever, Sweet-tasting, easily crushed to a powder, if desired—prompt in action. No "sleep" stuff—no dulling effect. Buy a box today for sickness so often strikes in the night. 29 cents.

perhaps, it's just as well for them to keep in mind, should they know of it, the story of the car that went the wrong way. On an evening some years ago, a car drove off Fourth Avenue, tore through brush, down a steep hillside, finally landing just off Fulton Street and handy to the City Hall. It was a ride that cost a life. For every now and then, there is such a ride.

SANDWICHES Better with

It has been claimed by a Vancouver visitor that polished desks result in harmful reflected glare and brightness contrast.
This brings on posture defects which in turn impairs the general health and consequently requires medical service and nursing care.
Who would ever suspect a shiny desk could make one an invalid? Late hours and over eating might have something to do with the situation.

Speaking of cars and all that, the number of drivers in Prince Rupert keeps increasing. And There's Something About Brasserie that's very homelike. Brass
